LAZARD EMERGING MARKETS LOCAL DEBT FUND

INTRODUCTION

The Company is authorised in Ireland by the Central Bank as a UCITS for the purposes of the Regulations. The Fund was approved by the Central Bank on 26 October 2010.

This Supplement forms part of the Prospectus and should be read in conjunction with the general description of the Company contained in the current Prospectus (together with the most recent annual and semi-annual reports).

The Company is structured as an umbrella fund in that the share capital of the Company may be divided into different classes of shares with one or more classes representing a separate fund of the Company. Each fund may have more than one share class.

Details of the available classes of Shares in this Fund are set out in Appendix I to this Supplement.

As at the date of this Supplement, there are no other Share classes in the Fund, apart from those listed in Appendix I, but additional share classes may be added in the future in accordance with Central Bank Requirements.

The Fund Base Currency is the US Dollar. Share classes denominated in a currency different to the Fund Base Currency (with the exception of the Hedged Share Classes) will not be hedged against movements in the Fund Base Currency.

Dealing information, including a description of the procedures for subscribing and redeeming Shares, settlement deadlines, dealing frequency and pricing is set out in Appendix II to this Supplement.

An investment in the Fund should be viewed as medium to long term and should not constitute a substantial portion of an investment portfolio and may not be suitable for all investors.

Investment Objective and Policy

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to maximise total return from income and capital growth.

Investment Policy

In pursuit of its investment objective, the Fund will build and maintain a diversified portfolio consisting of fixed and/or floating rate Investment Grade, Non-Investment Grade and Unrated bonds and other Fixed Income Securities, which are issued by Emerging Market Companies or which are issued by governments, government agencies or supranational bodies of Emerging Market Countries, or which are denominated in emerging market currencies or collateralised by emerging market debt, financial derivative instruments ("FDI"), units or shares of collective investment schemes and cash (as further described below). The securities in which the Fund will invest will primarily be denominated in local currencies although the Fund may invest on an ancillary basis in securities denominated in US Dollars or denominated in the currencies of other OECD countries.

The Fund will not invest directly in equities, however, by holding a convertible security to maturity or by exercising an option on a warrant (see further below under the heading "Investment in FDI" or a convertible the Fund may from time to time hold equity securities of Emerging Market Companies on an ancillary basis.

As indicated above, the Fund may invest in units or shares of collective investment schemes including exchange traded funds and/or other sub-funds of the Company where such investment is consistent with the investment policy of the Fund. Aggregate investment by the Fund in open-ended collective investment schemes shall not exceed 10% of the Fund's Net Asset Value.

The Fund may also at times hold a significant portion of its Net Asset Value in cash which may be invested in accordance with the Investment Manager's cash management policy, as further detailed below in the section entitled "Cash and Cash Management".

The securities in which the Fund will invest shall primarily be listed or traded on the Regulated Markets set out in Appendix I of the Prospectus and investment by the Fund is subject to the restrictions set out in Appendix III of the Prospectus.

Investment in FDI

Subject to the Regulations and conditions imposed by the Central Bank, the Fund may also engage in transactions in FDI, for hedging purposes (for example, to protect an asset against, or minimise liability from, fluctuations in market value or foreign currency exposures), for efficient portfolio management purposes (with a view to achieving a reduction in risk, a reduction in costs or an increase in capital or income returns within a level of risk consistent with the risk profile of the Fund) and/or for direct investment purposes (with a view to generating returns). These FDI may be dealt in over-the-counter or be listed or traded on the Regulated Markets set out in Appendix I to the Prospectus. Investments in FDI shall be in accordance with the relevant provisions of Appendix II of the Prospectus including those relating to collateral requirements and eligible counterparties, in addition to other requirements contained in the Regulations and conditions imposed by the Central Bank. While the reference items for FDI will primarily relate to debt and credit, currencies and equity securities may also constitute the underlying reference items, as detailed below.

It is expected that in normal circumstances the Fund will not have assets subject to 'Total Return Swaps' as such term is defined in accordance with the SFTR. The maximum proportion of the Fund's Net Asset Value that can, however, at any time be subject to such FDI at the Investment Manager's discretion is 30%.

The Investment Manager uses a risk management technique known as absolute value-at-risk to assess the Fund's market risk to seek to ensure that the use of FDI by the Fund is within regulatory limits. The 99% confidence level, one day holding period, value-at-risk on the portfolio of the Fund shall not exceed 4.47% in any one day. The value-at-risk model will use one year of historical data of daily market moves.

Using the value-at-risk approach for exposure measurement does not necessarily limit leverage levels. However, the Fund through its investments in FDI may be leveraged. Calculating leverage resulting from derivative usage, in accordance with Central Bank Requirements, as the sum of notional underlying all the FDI positions in the Fund expressed as a percentage of the Fund's Net Asset Value the expected level of the Fund's leverage will be 250% of the Fund's Net Asset Value. Higher leverage levels are possible, but leverage is not expected to exceed 400% of the Fund's Net Asset Value at any time. It should be noted that for certain types of trading strategies this approach to measuring leverage could lead to leverage levels that are very different from risk exposures.

The primary FDI in which the Fund may invest are as follows:

Forwards (foreign exchange forwards, including non-deliverable currency forwards)

A forward contract locks in the price at which an index or asset may be purchased or sold on a future date. In forward foreign exchange contracts, the contract holders are obligated to buy or sell from another a specified amount of one currency at a specified price (exchange rate) with another currency on a specified future date. Forward contracts can be 'closed out' by entering into a reverse contract. The Fund may use foreign exchange forwards, including non-deliverable currency forwards, to protect against fluctuations in the relative value of its portfolio positions as a result of changes in currency exchange rates and/or to benefit directly from changes in currency exchange rates.

Swaps (credit-default swaps ("CDS"), interest rate swaps, total return swaps, foreign exchange swaps)

Generally, a swap is a contractual agreement between two counterparties in which the cash flows from two reference assets are exchanged as they are received for a predetermined time period. The Fund may invest in CDS in order to transfer the credit risk arising from the Fund's holding of Fixed Income Securities, acquire a specific credit exposure or to speculate on changes in CDS spreads. The Fund may invest in interest rate swaps in order to offset risks posed to the value of its portfolio by volatility in interest rates or to speculate on changes to interest rates.

The Fund may also enter into total return swaps in order to gain exposure to certain asset classes, baskets of assets or markets in keeping with the investment policy of the Fund without investing directly in the reference asset. The total return swap allows one party to derive the economic benefit of owning an asset or index without buying directly that asset or index. Foreign exchange swaps may be used by the Fund to manage exchange rate/currency risk arising in the portfolio or to benefit directly from changes in currency exchange rates.

Credit-default swap indices

A credit-default swap index (for example, CDX or iTRAXX) is a credit derivative used to hedge credit risk or to take a position on a basket of credit entities. Unlike a CDS, which is an over-the-counter credit derivative, a credit-default swap index is a standardised credit security and may therefore be more liquid and trade at a smaller bid-offer spread. This means that it can be cheaper to hedge a portfolio of CDS or bonds with a credit-default swap index than it would be to buy many single name CDS to achieve a similar effect. Credit-default swap indices may be used by the Fund to hedge credit risk arising in the portfolio or to take a position on a basket of credit entities.

Options (currency options, bond options, CDS options, options on indices)

An option is a contract which gives the contract buyer the right, but not the obligation, to exercise a term of the option, such as buying a specified quantity of a particular product, asset or financial instrument, on, or up to and including, a future date (the exercise date). The 'writer' (seller) has the obligation to honour the specified term of the contract. Since the option gives the buyer a right and the seller an obligation, the buyer pays the seller a premium. Put options are contracts that give the option buyer the right to sell to the seller of the option the underlying product or financial instrument at a specified price on, or before, the exercise date. Call options are contracts that give the option buyer the right to buy from the seller of the option the underlying product or financial instrument at a specified price on, or before, the exercise date. Options may also be cash settled. The Fund may buy or sell (write) exchange-traded or over-the-counter put and call options. The Fund may invest in options in order to gain exposure to certain asset classes, baskets of assets or markets in keeping with the investment policy of the Fund without investing directly in the reference assets, or in order to protect against risks arising in the Fund's portfolio.

The Fund may also invest in the following FDI on an ancillary basis:

Futures (bond futures, currency futures, bond/credit index futures, interest rate futures)

Futures are contracts to buy or sell a standard quantity of a specific asset (or, in some cases, receive or pay cash based on the performance of an underlying asset, instrument or index) at a pre-determined future date and at a price agreed through a transaction undertaken on an exchange. The Fund may invest in futures contracts in order to hedge against market risk, currency exchange risk or interest rate risk arising in its portfolio or to gain exposure to an underlying market or reference asset in keeping with the investment policy of the Fund without investing directly. Using futures to achieve a particular strategy instead of investing directly in the underlying security or index may result in lower transaction costs being incurred by the Fund.

Swaptions (interest rate swaptions)

A swaption is an option which grants its owner the right but not the obligation to enter into an underlying swap. The Fund may enter into swaptions on underlying interest rate swaps in order to manage interest rate risk arising from its portfolio or to speculate on changes to interest rates.

Credit-linked notes (“CLNs”)

CLNs are fully funded balance sheet instruments that may offer the holder synthetic credit exposure to a reference entity (or to multiple reference entities) in a structure resembling a synthetic corporate bond or loan. CLN issuance can either be direct issuance by financial institutions, for instance, or issuance by a special purpose vehicle that holds collateral securities financed through the issuance proceeds. CLNs are created by embedding credit derivatives in new issues. Thus, the CLN investor achieves synthetic exposure to a CDS in a funded security form. The Fund may invest in CLNs as direct investments or to hedge against credit risk arising in the portfolio.

Convertible Securities

The Fund may invest in convertible securities, which are bonds, debentures, notes or preferred stock which may be converted into or exchanged for a prescribed amount of common stock of the same or different issuer within a particular period of time at a specified price or formula. A convertible security entitles the holder to receive interest paid or accrued on debt or the dividend paid on preferred stock until the convertible security matures or is redeemed, converted or exchanged. Before conversion, convertible securities ordinarily provide a stream of income, which generate higher yields than those of common stocks of the same or similar issuers but lower than the yield on non-convertible debt.

Warrants

Warrants are similar to options in that they give the holder the right but not the obligation to buy or sell stock at a set price in the future. A warrant guarantees the holder the right to buy (or sell) a specific number of shares at a specific price (the strike price) for a defined period of time. Unlike options on equity securities that are listed and trade on exchanges, warrants are usually issued by corporations through private transactions and typically trade over-the-counter.

Cash and Cash Management

In addition to cash held by the Fund as ancillary liquidity for the settlement of transactions, the Fund may hold a significant portion of its Net Asset Value in cash due either to the Fund’s use of FDI and/or because the Investment Manager otherwise deems it to be appropriate to do so. In such circumstances, the Investment Manager may seek to employ an effective cash management policy to seek to maximise the value of such cash holdings to the Fund, by investing in treasuries and a wide variety of other money market instruments and money market funds which satisfy Central Bank Requirements for investment by a UCITS.

Benchmark

Performance of the Fund will be measured against the J.P. Morgan GBI-EM Global Diversified Index. The J.P. Morgan GBI-EM Global Diversified Index is comprised of regularly traded, liquid fixed-rate domestic currency government bonds of emerging market countries which permit foreign investors access to their capital markets.

Currency Hedging Policy

The Fund may engage in currency hedging transactions, including investment in FDI, in order to provide protection against exposure to currency risk arising both at the level of its portfolio holdings and at Share class level. There can be no guarantee however that such currency hedging transactions will be successful or effective in achieving their objective.

The FDI which the Fund may use for currency hedging purposes are set out in the section of this Supplement entitled “Investment in FDI”.

Hedging at Portfolio Level

The Fund may engage in currency hedging transactions in order to protect the value of specific portfolio positions or in anticipation of changes in the relative values of the currencies in which current or future Fund portfolio holdings are denominated or quoted. For example, the Fund may engage in currency hedging transactions in order to offset the currency exposure arising as a result of Investments in its portfolio being denominated in currencies different from the Fund Base Currency or to protect against movements in currency exchange rates between the date on which the Investment Manager contracts to purchase or sell a security and the settlement date for the purchase or sale of that security, or to “lock in” the equivalent of a dividend or interest payment in another currency.

Hedging at Share Class Level

The Fund may also engage in currency hedging transactions in order to provide protection against movements of the currency in which a Share class is denominated relative to the Fund Base Currency, where different. To the extent that such hedging transactions are successful, the performance of the relevant Hedged Share Class is likely to move in line with the performance of the Fund’s Investments and Shareholders of the Hedged Share Class will not benefit as a result of a decline in the value of the currency in which the class is denominated relative to the Fund Base Currency or relative to the currencies in which the assets of the Fund are denominated. To the extent that the Fund employs strategies aimed at hedging certain Share classes, there can be no assurance that such strategies will be effective.

The Currency Manager has been appointed to provide non-discretionary currency hedging services in respect of the Hedged Share Classes of the Fund.

The costs and related liabilities/benefits arising from instruments entered into for the purposes of hedging currency exposure for the benefit of any particular Hedged Share Class of the Fund shall be attributable exclusively to the relevant Share class.

Currency exposure will not exceed 105% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Hedged Share Class. All transactions will be clearly attributable to the relevant Hedged Share Class and currency exposures of different Share classes will not be combined or offset. The Company will have procedures in place to monitor hedged positions and to ensure that over-hedged positions do not exceed 105% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Hedged Share Class. As part of this procedure, the Company will review hedged positions in excess of 100% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Hedged Share Class on at least a monthly basis to ensure they are not carried forward from month to month. While not the intention of the Company, overhedged or underhedged positions may arise due to factors outside the control of the Company.

Investment and Borrowing Restrictions

The Company is a UCITS and accordingly the Fund is subject to the investment and borrowing restrictions set out in the Regulations and Central Bank Requirements. These restrictions are set out in detail in Appendix III to the Prospectus.

Risk Factors

Shareholders and potential investors should consider and take account of the risk factors set out in the Prospectus in addition to those set out below.

The Fund may invest a significant amount of its Net Asset Value in deposits and/or money market instruments, but should not be considered by investors as an alternative to investing in a regular deposit account. Investors should note that a holding in the Fund is subject to the risks associated with investing in a collective investment undertaking, in particular the fact that the principal sum invested is capable of fluctuation as the Net Asset Value of the Fund fluctuates.

Exchange Rate Risk

The Fund Base Currency is the US Dollar. Share classes denominated in a currency different to the Fund Base Currency (with the exception of the Hedged Share Classes) will not be hedged against the Fund Base Currency and will, accordingly be subject to exchange rate risk in relation to the Fund Base Currency.

Profile of a Typical Investor

Suitable for investors seeking to achieve an attractive level of return from an actively managed and diversified portfolio providing exposure primarily to emerging market fixed income securities denominated in local currencies.

Management and Administration

Detailed descriptions of the Directors and service providers to the Company are set out in the Prospectus.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Share Class Fees and Charges

Details of certain fees and charges applicable to each class of Shares (including the Annual Management Fee and the maximum percentage fees payable on subscription, redemption and conversion) are set out in the tables included in Appendix I to this Supplement.

In addition to those fees and charges set out in the tables included in Appendix I to this Supplement, each of the Hedged Share Classes shall bear its attributable portion of the fees payable to the Currency Manager. The Currency Manager has been engaged to facilitate the carrying out of foreign exchange transactions for the purpose of hedging the exposure of each Hedged Share Class to changes in the rate of exchange between the currency in which that Hedged Share Class is denominated and the Fund Base Currency. The fees payable to the Currency Manager are as set out in the Prospectus.

Other Expenses Cap

Each class of Shares shall also bear its attributable portion of the other expenses of the Company (as set out in detail under the heading "Other Expenses" in the section of the Prospectus entitled "Fees and Expenses") subject to a cap of 0.23% per annum of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. The Manager will be responsible for any such expenses in excess of this limit with the exception of the expenses of acquiring and disposing of Investments (including brokerage expenses, custodial and sub-custodial transaction charges, stamp duties and other relevant taxes).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Manager will not be responsible for the costs of hedging currency exposure for the benefit of any particular Hedged Share Class of the Fund, which costs shall be attributable exclusively to the relevant Hedged Share Class.

VALUATION OF ASSETS

The Net Asset Value of the Fund and of each Share class will be calculated by the Administrator as at each Valuation Point in accordance with the requirements of the Articles and full details are set out under the heading "Statutory and General Information" in the Prospectus.

SUBSCRIPTION PROCEDURE

All applicants subscribing for Shares must complete the application form prescribed by the Directors in relation to the Fund ("Application Form") and comply promptly with all necessary money laundering clearance requirements.

An Application Form accompanies this Supplement and sets out the methods by which and to whom the subscription monies should be sent. Application Forms shall (save as determined by the Manager) be irrevocable and may be sent by facsimile to the Administrator at the risk of the applicant.

The original Application Form should be sent to arrive with the Administrator within four Business Days of the date on which the application for Shares was made. All required anti-money laundering documentation (including such original documentation as may be required) should accompany the original Application Form.

Failure to provide the original Application Form and all required anti-money laundering documentation within the time period referred to in the previous paragraph may, at the discretion of the Manager, result in the compulsory redemption of the relevant Shares.

Applicants will be unable to redeem Shares on request until the original Application Form and all required anti-money laundering documentation has been received by the Administrator in a form satisfactory to it, and accepted.

Shareholders may subscribe for further Shares (i.e. post their initial subscription) by sending a fax to the Administrator or by electronic means or by such other means as the Company may permit in accordance with Central Bank Requirements.

All subscription requests received after the Initial Offer Period for the relevant Shares has closed will be dealt with on a forward pricing basis (i.e. by reference to the Net Asset Value of the Shares subscribed calculated as at the Valuation Point for the Dealing Day on which the subscription is effected).

Applications for Shares received after the Initial Offer Period for such Shares has closed must be received and accepted before the Cut-Off Time for the Dealing Day on which the subscription is to be effected. No application will be considered received and accepted by the Administrator until (a) a completed Application Form and (b) all required anti-money laundering documentation, have been received by the Administrator and both (a) and (b) satisfy the requirements of the Administrator.

Any such applications (as referred to in the previous paragraph) received after the Cut-Off Time for the relevant Dealing Day will normally be held over until the next following Dealing Day. However, in exceptional circumstances, applications received after the Cut-Off Time but prior to the Valuation Point for a particular Dealing Day may be accepted for dealing on that Dealing Day at the discretion of the Manager. Any request for subscription on a particular Dealing Day received after the Valuation Point for that Dealing Day will be held over until the next Dealing Day.

If payment in full in cleared funds in respect of a subscription has not been received by the Settlement Deadline specified in the "Dealing Information" table above, the Company may (and in the event of non-clearance of funds, shall) cancel the allotment and/or charge the applicant for any loss suffered by the Fund as a result of the delay or non-clearance. In addition, the Company will have the right to sell or redeem all or part of the applicant's holding of Shares in the Fund or in any other sub-fund of the Company in order to meet those charges.

REDEMPTION PROCEDURE

Every Shareholder will have the right to require the Company to redeem his Shares on any Dealing Day (save during any period when the calculation of the Net Asset Value is suspended in the circumstances set out under the heading "Temporary Suspension" in the Prospectus) on furnishing to the Administrator a redemption request. Shares may be redeemed only by application through the Administrator.

All redemption requests are dealt with on a forward pricing basis (i.e. by reference to the Net Asset Value of the Shares to be redeemed calculated as at the Valuation Point for the Dealing Day on which the redemption is effected).

Redemption requests will only be accepted where cleared funds and completed documents are in place from original subscriptions. No redemption payment will be made until (a) the original Application Form and (b) all required anti-money laundering documentation (including such original documentation as may be required), have been received by the Administrator and both (a) and (b) satisfy the requirements of the Administrator.

Redemption requests must be received and accepted before the Cut-Off Time for the Dealing Day on which the redemption is to be effected. Shares will be redeemed at the relevant Net Asset Value on the relevant Dealing Day (less such redemption fee and Duties and Charges, if any, as may be applied). If the redemption request is received after the relevant Cut-Off Time it shall normally be treated as a request for redemption on the Dealing Day following such receipt and Shares will be redeemed at the relevant Net Asset Value for that day (less such redemption fee and Duties and Charges, if any, as may be applied). However, in exceptional circumstances, redemption requests received after the Cut-Off Time, but prior to the Valuation Point for the relevant Dealing Day may be accepted for dealing on that Dealing Day at the discretion of the Manager. Any request for redemption on a particular Dealing Day received after the Valuation Point for that Dealing Day will be held over until the next following Dealing Day.

Redemption requests shall (save as determined by the Manager) be irrevocable and may, at the risk of the relevant Shareholder, be given by fax, by post, by electronic means or by such other means as the Company may permit in accordance with Central Bank Requirements.

Compulsory Redemption

The Manager shall have the right to redeem compulsorily any Share at the Redemption Price or to require the transfer of any Share to a Qualified Holder if in its opinion (i) such Share is held by a person other than a Qualified Holder; or (ii) the redemption or transfer (as the case may be) would eliminate or reduce the exposure of the Company or the Shareholders to adverse tax or regulatory consequences.

Switching

Details in respect of switching are set out in detail under the heading "Switching" in the Prospectus.

Transfers

The conditions relating to transfers of Shares are set out in the Prospectus.
