3 Investment Information

The following section is designed to give you further information about the Funds. Please note that the Company's Prospectus provides further detail if required.

We recommend that you contact a financial adviser if you have any doubts about the suitability of an investment in any of our Funds, or if you are not confident that you fully understand the risks involved.

Before you invest, you should:

- make sure that you have selected a Fund that has an aim which is consistent with your goals;
- read the relevant KIID for the Fund you have selected;
- consider the risks that you will be taking when you invest in a Fund whose return is not guaranteed; and
- make sure that you understand how charges might affect your investment.

What is a class of Share and who are the different classes aimed at?

Different classes of Share have different terms and conditions.

- Class I: aimed at smaller deals, usually from financial advisers and individuals.
- Class III: aimed at medium to large deals, for example from portfolio managers, or institutional investors.
- Class VI: Aimed at medium to large deals, for example from portfolio managers, or institutional investors.

When and how are the Funds valued?

After receiving your correctly completed application form we calculate the price at which you will invest in the Fund(s) of your choice at the next valuation point (11am (Irish time) on each dealing day).

Shares may be bought and sold from 8am to 5pm on any dealing day. If we receive your valid correctly completed application before 10am (Irish time), the share price will be determined at that day's valuation point. If we receive an order to buy or sell after 10am (Irish time), the price will be determined at the following dealing day's valuation point. This is known as "forward pricing". Further information can be found in the Company's Prospectus.

What is a dealing day?

A dealing day means any business day (excluding Saturday and Sunday) on which banks in Dublin are open for business. This is Monday to Friday 8am to 5pm (Irish time) except for bank holidays in Ireland and the last business day before Christmas and other days as the Directors of the Company may with the approval of the Depositary, determine.

What is a valuation point?

We price the Funds every dealing day at 11am (Irish time); we call this the valuation point.

What are the differences between accumulation Shares and distribution Shares?

If you invest in accumulation Shares, you will not receive any income from your investment. Any income will be rolled up into the value of Shares in the Fund you invest in; this will maximise your investment's potential to grow.

If you invest in distribution Shares, you will receive income on a regular basis. This may affect your investment's potential to grow.

What is a benchmark?

A benchmark is an index against which a Fund's performance is measured.

Investing in the Funds

How can I invest in the Funds?

You can invest in the Funds by completing the application form and attaching a cheque made payable to HSSI FBO FSI House Collections Account. Both the correctly completed application form and cheque should be sent to:

What information do I need before I invest in the Company?

Before investing in the Company you will need to read the KIID for the Fund and Share Class you wish to invest in.

Why do I need to read the KIID before I invest?

Therefore, when you send in an application form, you will be asked to confirm you have read the KIID.

The agreement is made under English law. By investing you agree that any dispute will be settled by the courts of England and Wales.

What information will I receive after I invest?

We will send you a contract note giving you details of the Shares we bought for you. As we will not issue any Share certificates, you should retain your contract note for your personal records.

What are my cancellation rights?

If you have received advice from a financial adviser about your investment/transfer you may have the right to cancel your investment within 14 days of receiving your contract note. In these circumstances, if you wish to cancel your investments, you should contact client services on 0800 917 1717 (+44 131 525 8872) or alternatively write to client services, as follows:

We will then return your investment to you although you may not receive back the amount you originally invested if the value of your investment has fallen. You will also have the sales charge deducted from your investment if applicable.

Where you have not received advice, your application will not qualify for cancellation rights but you will be able to sell your Shares in the normal way.

How can I keep track of the performance of my Investment?

You can check the Share prices and monitor your investments in a variety of ways:

- Check our website at www.firststateinvestments.com
- Call us on 0800 917 1717 (+44 131 525 8872) between 9am and 5pm (UK time) each Monday to Friday with the exception of all bank holidays in England and Wales and the last business day before Christmas.
- Contact your financial adviser.

Can I switch my investment in a Fund to another First State Investments Fund?

Subject to the terms set out in the Company's Prospectus, you may switch all or some of your Shares of a Class or a Fund for Shares of another Class or Fund.

In order to switch/transfer between the Funds you can do so by faxing your instruction on any dealing day to: HSBC Securities Services (Ireland) Ltd +353 1 649 7560

We may at our discretion charge a fee for switching shares between Funds. The switching fees are set out in the KIIDs.

What happens to the income of the Fund I invest in?

If you hold income Shares any income due to you will be paid into your bank or building society account. If you hold accumulation Shares any income due to you will be reinvested and the income reflected in the price of your existing shares. No new shares will be issued, however you will be deemed to have received income for tax purposes.

When will any income be paid in relation to my investment?

Many of the investments we make in the Funds pay dividends, which we may pass on to you as a shareholder either as income (if you own a distributing share) or by the value of your shares in the Fund increasing in value (if you own an accumulation share). We call this distributing income. We will distribute any income twice per year on certain funds or before the end of February and end of August each year. Certain funds distribute four times per year on or before the end of February, May, August and November each year.

Will I receive interest on cash balances?

We aim to fully invest your money so we will not pay interest on cash balances.

Fees and Expenses

What are the costs of investing in the Funds?

There are a number of costs associated with investing in the Funds which are highlighted below. Further information on all of the charges and expenses can be found in the Company's Prospectus.

The Company's Prospectus specifies the maximum amount of these charges.

Investment management fee: This is the yearly charge payable to the Investment Manager for running the Fund. We may increase the investment management fee by giving you 60 days' written notice.

Sales charge: This charge may be imposed when you purchase Shares. The sales charge is added to the price you pay for Shares. We may increase the sales charge by giving you 60 days' written notice.

Other expenses: Other fees and expenses relating to the administration of the Funds include custody, administration and registrar fees. These are payable out of the Funds and taken in to account when calculating the Share price at which you buy or sell Shares. We pay these fees and expenses out of the income of each of the Funds except for the First State Asian Equity Plus Fund, the First State Asian Property Securities Fund, First Global Credit Income Fund, First State Emerging Markets Bond Fund, First State Global Property Securities Fund and the First State Global Listed Infrastructure Fund, where fees and expenses will be charged against the capital of the relevant Fund. Deducting expenses from capital reduces the potential for capital growth. For further information please see the section on risk factors in the Company's Prospectus.

Details of the fees and expenses are available in KIID for each Fund.

How will fees and expenses affect my investment?

Please refer to the individual KIID for each Fund to see how fees and expenses could affect your investments into the Funds. The fees and expenses in the KIID are as at the date of the of the last audited financial statement. The rates of return are not guaranteed and the information only shows the effect of fees and expenses.

Are fees and taxes included in the calculation of the performance?

Past performance calculations do not include any fees, taxes or charges.

What is the net asset value (NAV)?

It is the value of the assets of the Fund less the liabilities of the Fund and is calculated in accordance with the Company's Prospectus.

Is a dilution adjustment applied to the Funds?

Under certain circumstances, high levels of buying and selling Shares in a Fund may increase the dealing costs and affect the value of the assets in the Fund. To prevent this effect, called "dilution", we will apply an "anti-dilution adjustment" to the share price for those of you dealing in the Fund on the day when Shares are bought or sold.

On days when there are net inflows to a Fund, any dilution adjustment will have the effect of increasing the share price and conversely, on days when there are net outflows from the Fund, any anti-dilution adjustment will have the effect of reducing the share price.

You will find further details of the anti-dilution adjustment in the Company's Prospectus.

Your adviser will give you details about the precise cost.

Currently, there are no additional costs if you buy or sell Shares by fax, postal or in writing.

Are redemption charges currently charged?
