Portfolio Review

The Fund outperformed the benchmark over the past six months

The Nikko AM Shenton Short Term Bond Fund ($\$) (the "Fund") delivered a gain of 1.40% (in SGD terms, on a NAV-NAV basis) for the six months ending 31 December 2019, outperforming the benchmark which returned 0.95%. 2-year US Treasury (UST) yields fell by 18.5 basis points (bps), while 2-year SGD swap rates were lower by about 23 bps over the same period. The outperformance was supported by positive contribution from income, spread and duration management. Meanwhile, our holdings in Bharat Petroleum Corp 4.375% 24 Jan 2022, Beijing Capital Development Holding Group 3.375% 03 Nov 2021 and Australia & New Zealand Banking Group. 3.75% 23 Mar 2027 were among the top performers.

Changes to Fund characteristics

As of 31 December 2019, the Fund's weighted average duration* and weighted average yield-to-maturity were at 1.28 years and 2.64% (hedged in SGD terms), respectively. The average credit rating of the Fund is at A-. The Fund is diversified across 125 bonds, with 101 issuers from 15 countries, with an average weight of 0.92% per issuer. During the month, the level of cash and cash equivalents was at 6.84%.

Market Review

UST yields fell over the period in review

The overall risk-off tone in the market caused the UST yield curve to shift lower in early August. There was a partial yield back-up in early September in response to the positive turn in trade developments, but an attack on Saudi oil facilities, and rising political risk in the US, re-exerted downward pressure on UST yields towards end-September. In October, the optimism on the trade front drove longer-end UST yields higher. UST yields were range-bound in early December, while the more positive trade developments in the second half of the month led to higher UST yields alongside a steepening of the curve. Overall, 2-year and 10-year UST yields ended the period at 1.57% and 1.92% respectively, about 18 bps and 9 bps lower compared to end-June.

Asian credit spreads ended tighter as trade developments remained the key driver

Asian credit spreads saw a fair bit of volatility throughout the second half of the year. The sharp and unexpected escalation in US-China trade tensions in early August, combined with ongoing concerns about global growth, caused spreads to widen meaningfully. However, greater policy support from China, expectations of further monetary easing by other major central banks and expectations of greater fiscal stimulus to ease the burden on monetary policy, provided some offset. Towards end-September, a combination of heavy corporate and sovereign bond supply across developed and emerging markets, and emerging political risk in the US continued to weigh on risk sentiment and credit spreads. After the US-China trade negotiations in October, sentiments were lifted as both sides indicated that significant progress has been made towards achieving a "Phase One" trade deal. In December, Asian credits rallied on improved sentiment as it emerged that "Phase One" of the US-China trade deal had been agreed in principle. Although details of the deal were initially lacking, subsequent confirmation from both sides led to stronger conviction and a broad-based squeeze in credit spreads.

In terms of country specific developments, China reported a set of weak economic data for October, including industrial production, fixed asset investment and retail sales. China subsequently reduced certain policy rates by 5 bps and relaxed capital requirements for some infrastructure projects to support the domestic economy. These developments did weigh on spreads but ultimately were of secondary importance to the progress on trade talks. Elsewhere, Moody's lowered the outlook on India's Baa2 sovereign rating to negative from stable in early November, driven by concerns about slowing growth and rising risk of fiscal slippage. Moody's also cut India's GDP growth forecast to 4.9% from 5.8% for FY2020, stating that the corporate tax cut, financial support to farmers and monetary policy will only have a marginal effect on the economy. Despite these developments, Indian bond spreads performed broadly in line with the rest of Asia due to the improvement in broader sentiment. Similarly, the continuing sociopolitical unrest in Hong Kong had a negligible impact on the territory's credit spreads, with high-quality investment-grade names finding demand.

For 2H2019, Asian high-grade returned 3.16%, as declining UST yields and carry supported returns while credit spreads tightened by 13 bps. For the six-month period, there was around USD 80.1 billion of high-grade issuance.

Market Outlook & Strategy

Credit spreads to remain range-bound

While some of the major downside risk events have been averted towards the end of the year, uncertainties regarding global growth momentum and revival of geopolitical risks are likely to linger. Meanwhile, Asian credit fundamentals remain largely stable. We expect Asian credit spreads and UST yields to remain range-bound for the time being, with a bias towards slightly tighter spreads and higher rates with returns mainly coming from carry. Credits with a track record of operating through tough business and funding environments and names that have gone through deleveraging are likely to outperform. Over the medium term, downside risks remain. Although a "Phase One" deal has been agreed upon, the scope of the trade agreement between the US and China looks likely to fall well short of the comprehensive deal that the US was aiming for. Resolution on the key strategic issues will likely take much longer and tension in the US-China relationship is likely to persist and may re-escalate in 2020.

Portfolio Review

The Fund outperformed the benchmark over the past 12 months

The Nikko AM Shenton Short Term Bond Fund (S$) (the "Fund") delivered a gain of 3.39% (in SGD terms, on a NAV-NAV basis) for the 12 months ending 30 June 2019, outperforming the benchmark which returned 1.78%. 2-year US Treasury (UST) yields fell by 77 basis points (bps), while 1 to 3 year SOR rates were down by about 11bps to 54bps over the same period. The outperformance was supported by positive contribution from income, spread and duration management. Meanwhile, our holdings in Commonwealth Bank of Australia 3.375% 20 Oct 2026, Fubon Bank (Hong Kong) Ltd. 6.125% 30 Nov 2020 and Keppel Land Financial Services Pte. Ltd. 3.259% 11 Dec 2019 were among the top performers.

Changes to Fund characteristics

As of 30 June 2019, the Fund's weighted average duration* and weighted average yield-to-maturity were at 1.36 years and 2.94% (hedged in SGD terms), respectively. The average credit rating of the Fund is at A-. The Fund is diversified across 128 bonds, with 106 issuers from 14 countries, with an average weight of 0.90% per issuer. During the month, the level of cash and cash equivalents was at 4.82%.

Market Review

Yields of USTs plummeted over the year in review

The start of the period saw UST yields rising, on the back of the positive trajectory of the US economy and hawkish comments from US Federal Reserve (Fed) Chairman Jerome Powell. The rise in yields proved to be short-lived, as the continuation of the US-China trade war, weak economic numbers from China, coupled with a precipitous decline in global oil prices dissuaded investors from adding on risk. Moreover, a slew of disappointing earnings results from US companies caused a significant correction in US equities thereafter, causing UST yields to slide. In December 2018, risk assets came under continued pressure from a multitude of factors including growth concerns in major economies, an increased likelihood of a no deal Brexit, US government shutdown and a sharp decline in risk assets and energy prices. Despite these developments, the Fed raised rates anew, sending equity indices to the year's lows. As markets began to price out any rate hikes in 2019, yields moved lower. UST yields traded largely sideways in the first quarter of 2019. However, as major central banks turned decidedly dovish and trade negotiations between US and China deteriorated, yields started falling steeply. Overall, 2-year and 10-year yields ended the period at 1.76% and 2.01% respectively, about 77bps and 86bps lower compared to end-June 2018.

Asian credits registered positive total returns

Gains in Asia credits were driven mainly by the rally in USTs, although credit spreads also tightened marginally. The period started with risk aversion as idiosyncratic concerns in Turkey and Argentina adversely affected sentiment. The resulting sharp falls in some Emerging Market (EM) currencies including the Indian Rupee (INR) and Indonesian Rupiah (IDR) added to investor concerns and pushed overall credit spreads wider. Risk sentiment saw a drastic improvement in the latter half of the period, prompted by further policy easing in China and the increasingly dovish lean by major central banks around the world. Reassurance from Chinese policymakers that targeted policies to support domestic growth will be pursued, coupled with overall better-than-expected earnings by Asian corporates also contributed to the steady tightening in spreads in the latter half of the period. Meanwhile, strong inflows into EM hard currency bond funds provided a firm demand backdrop.

Market Outlook & Strategy

Expect further monetary easing which will partially offset the negative development on trade; modest widening in spreads likely in the near-term

In another twist to the trade negotiations between the US and China, US President Trump announced, on 1 August, the imposition of 10% tariffs on roughly USD 300 billion of Chinese imports into the US effective from 1 September 2019. While we had been of the view that a final resolution to the trade conflict remains uncertain and unlikely to materialise in the near-term, this particular move was largely unexpected by the market, and is clearly negative for risk sentiment. However, with this escalation in the trade conflict, coupled with continued softness in global manufacturing sentiment, the major central banks are likely to maintain or strengthen their dovish lean. The expectation of further monetary easing will provide some offset to the negative development on the trade front, although overall we are still expecting a modest widening in Asian credit spreads near-term, especially as valuations have turned less attractive.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Singapore Standards on Auditing ("SSAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics for Public Accountants and Accounting Entities ("ACRA Code") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Singapore, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ACRA Code.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE UNITHOLDERS OF NIKKO AM SHENTON SHORT TERM BOND FUND (S$)

(Constituted under a Trust Deed registered in the Republic of Singapore)

Responsibilities of the Manager for the Financial Statements

The Manager is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the recommendations of Statement of Recommended Accounting Practice 7 "Reporting Framework for Unit Trusts" issued by the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants and for such internal control as the Manager determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Manager is responsible for assessing the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Manager either intends to terminate the Fund or to cease the Fund's operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Manager's responsibilities include overseeing the Fund's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Manager.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Manager's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund to cease to continue as a going concern.

(Constituted under a Trust Deed registered in the Republic of Singapore)

• Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the Manager regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the financial year ended 30 June 2019

These notes form an integral part of and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying financial statements.

1. General

Nikko AM Shenton Short Term Bond Fund (S$) (the "Fund") is a Singapore domiciled fund, constituted as a sub-fund of the Nikko AM Shenton Short Term Bond Funds, pursuant to the Trust Deed dated 26 June 2000 as amended by Supplemental Deeds and Amended and Restated Deeds (collectively referred to as the "Deeds"). The Deeds are governed by the laws of the Republic of Singapore. The Trustee of the Fund is BNP Paribas Trust Services Singapore Limited (the "Trustee"). The Manager of the Fund is Nikko Asset Management Asia Limited (the "Manager").

There are currently five classes of units established within the Fund, namely SGD Class, AUD Hedged Class, USD Class, USD Hedged Class and RMB Class.

The classes differ in terms of their class currency, the management fees, the minimum subscription amounts applicable, the periods for payments of realisation proceeds and the hedging features applicable to certain classes as described below.

The NAV of each class within the Fund will be valued in its respective class currency.

For the AUD Hedged Class and the USD Hedged Class, the Manager intend to hedge the currency exposure of the assets of the Scheme attributable to (a) the AUD Hedged Class into AUD and (b) the USD Hedged Class into USD, through the use of currency forwards. Consequently, the NAV per Unit of each of the AUD Hedged Class and the USD Hedged Class will take into account any gains or losses arising from the use of the currency forwards in respect of the relevant class.

As of 30 June 2019, only units in SGD Class, AUD Hedged Class and USD Hedged Class have been issued.

2. Significant accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below.

(Constituted under a Trust Deed registered in the Republic of Singapore)

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical-cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, and in accordance with the recommendations of Recommended Accounting Practice 7 "Reporting Framework for Unit Trusts" ("RAP 7") issued by the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants.

(b) Recognition of income

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

Interest income is recognised on a time-proportion basis using the effective interest rate method.

(c) Investments

Investments are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

(i) Initial recognition

Purchases of investments are recognised on the trade date. Investments are recorded at fair value on initial recognition.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

Investments are subsequently carried at fair value. Net change in fair value on investments are included in the Statement of Total Return in the year in which they arise.

(iii) Derecognition

Investments are derecognised on the trade date of disposal. The resultant realised gains and losses on the sales of investment are computed on the basis of the difference between the weighted average cost and selling price gross of transaction costs, and are taken up in the Statement of Total Return.

(d) Basis of valuation of investments

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the close of trading on the reporting date. The quoted market price used for fixed income securities held by the fund is the mid-market price for both financial assets and financial liabilities.

(Constituted under a Trust Deed registered in the Republic of Singapore)

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(e) Receivables

Receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Receivables are initially recognised at their fair value and subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less accumulated impairment losses.

(f) Sales and purchases awaiting settlement

Sales and purchases awaiting settlement represent receivables for securities sold and payables for securities purchased that have been contracted for but not yet settled or delivered on the Statement of Financial Position date respectively. These amounts are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost.

(g) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at banks and on hand which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(h) Payables

Accrued expenses are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(i) Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

The Fund qualifies as an authorised scheme under the Securities and Futures Act ("SFA") of Singapore and is offered to retail investors in Singapore. The Fund's activities are substantially based in Singapore, with subscriptions and redemptions of the units of the Fund being denominated in Singapore Dollar (SGD), United States Dollar (USD) and Australian Dollar (AUD).

The performance of the Fund is measured and reported to the investors in Singapore Dollar. The Manager considers the Singapore Dollar as the currency which most faithfully represents the economic effects of the underlying transactions, events and conditions. The financial statements are expressed in Singapore Dollar, which is the Fund's functional and presentation currency.

(Constituted under a Trust Deed registered in the Republic of Singapore)

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(i) Foreign currency translation (continued)

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Singapore Dollar at the rates of exchange prevailing at the date of the Statement of Financial Position. The net unrealised gain or loss is taken to the Statement of Total Return. Transactions during the year are recorded in Singapore Dollar at the rates of exchange ruling on transaction dates. All realised gains or losses are recognised in the Statement of Total Return.

(j) Financial derivatives

Financial derivatives are entered into for the purposes of efficient portfolio management, tactical asset allocation or specific hedging of financial assets held as determined by the Manager and in accordance with the provisions of the Deeds.

Financial derivatives outstanding at the end of the financial year are valued at forward rates or at current market prices using the "mark-to-market" method, as applicable, and the resultant gains and losses are taken up in the Statement of Total Return.

(k) Expenses charged to the fund

Management fees are charged directly to each share class as follows:

SGD Class and USD Hedged Class: 0.3% per annum

AUD Hedged Class: 0.5% per annum

All other expenses relate to the Fund as a whole and are further allocated to each share class based on the respective asset under management proportion.

(Constituted under a Trust Deed registered in the Republic of Singapore)

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(I) Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the Statement of Financial Position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the company or the counterparty.

(m) Collateral

Cash collateral provided by the Fund is identified in the Statement of Financial Position as margin account and is not included as a component of cash and cash equivalents. For collateral other than cash, if the party to whom the collateral is provided has the right by contract or custom to sell or re-pledge the collateral, the Fund classifies that asset in its Statement of Financial Position separately from other assets and identifies the asset as pledged collateral. Where the party to whom the collateral is provided does not have the right to sell or re-pledge, a disclosure of the collateral provided is made in the Notes to the Financial Statements.

10. Financial risk management

The Fund's activities expose it to a variety of risk, including but not limited to market risk (including currency risk, interest rate risk and price risk), liquidity risk and credit risk. The Manager is responsible for implementation of overall risk management programme, which seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Fund's financial performance. Specific guidelines on exposures to individual securities and certain industries and/or countries are in place as part of the overall financial risk management to reduce the Fund's exposures to these risks.

The Fund's primary objective is to seek preservation of capital, liquidity and consistent with these objectives, to outperform the Singapore Interbank Offered Rate (SIBOR) by investing in a diversified portfolio of good quality, short term bonds and money market instruments.

These financial instruments are held in accordance with the published investment policies of the Fund and managed accordingly to achieve the investment objectives.

(a) Market risk - Price risk

Price risk is the risk that arises from uncertainties about future prices of financial instruments.

The Fund's investment is substantially dependent on the changes of market prices. The Fund's overall market positions are monitored regularly so as to assess any deviation from the Fund's investment objective. However, events beyond reasonable control of the Manager could affect the prices of the underlying investments and hence the net asset value of the Fund.

The Fund's market price risk is managed through diversification of the investment portfolio across various geographies and industries globally.

The market prices of financial assets held by the Fund are primarily dependent on prevailing market interest rates, as the Fund invests in global bonds issued by governments and corporations. Consequently, no separate price risk sensitivity analysis is prepared as it is covered in the interest rate risk sensitivity analysis.

(b) Market risk - Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates (fair value risk).

The Manager regularly accesses the economic condition, monitor changes in interest rates outlook and take appropriate measures accordingly to control the impact of the interest rate risk. The Fund's overall market positions are monitored frequently and are reviewed formally on a quarterly basis by the Manager.

(c) Market risk - Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.

To minimise currency risk, the Fund mainly holds its excess cash in its functional currency. For hedging purposes, the Fund may also enter into forward foreign exchange contracts.

The tables below summarise the Fund's exposure to currency risks.

10. Financial risk management (continued)

(d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk of loss arising from the inability of the Fund to meet its obligations as they fall due without incurring unacceptable cost or losses.

The Fund is exposed to daily cash redemptions from unitholders. However, in accordance with the Fund's prospectus, minimum holdings and redemption size is set.

To manage the liquidity risk, a cash buffer is maintained in the Fund and monitored for minimum cash balances to prevent any extensive disposition of assets which may occur at lower prices and overdraft situations to meet trade settlements and obligations.

The Fund's securities are considered readily realisable, as the majority of the securities are listed on recognised stock exchanges.

The Fund's financial liabilities and net settled derivative financial liabilities are analysed using contractual undiscounted cashflows for maturity groupings on the remaining year at the Statement of Financial Position date to the contractual maturity date. As at 30 June 2019 and 2018, all liabilities are payable in less than 3 months. The impact of discounting is not significant.

(e) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will be unable to fulfil its obligations to the Fund in part or in full as and when they fall due.

Concentrations of credit risk are minimised primarily by:

- ensuring counterparties as well as the respective credit limits are approved;
- ensuring there are controls in place to identify and assess the creditworthiness of counterparties and review such controls on a semi-annual basis; and
- ensuring that transactions are undertaken with a large number of counterparties.

All trade settlement with approved counterparties are on Delivery versus Payment and/or Receipt versus Payment basis, with the exception of initial public offerings, new issues and placement transactions.

The Fund invests in financial assets, which have an investment grade as rated by Standard & Poor's and/or Moody's. The credit ratings are reviewed regularly.

(g) Fair value estimation

The Fund classifies fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

The following table analyses within the fair value hierarchy the Fund's financial assets and liabilities (by class) measured at fair value at 30 June 2019 and 2018:

Financial instruments that trade in markets that are not considered to be active but are valued based on quoted market prices, dealer quotations or alternative pricing sources supported by observable inputs are classified within level 2. These include investment-grade corporate bonds and over-the-counter derivatives.

Except for cash and bank balances and margin accounts which are classified as level 1. The Fund's assets and liabilities not measured at fair value at 30 June 2019 and 2018 have been classified as level 2. The carrying amounts of these assets and liabilities approximate their fair values as at the Statement of Financial Position date.

The expense ratio has been computed based on the guidelines laid down by the Investment Management Association of Singapore ("IMAS"). The calculation of the expense ratio at financial year end was based on total operating expenses divided by the average net asset value for the year. The total operating expenses do not include (where applicable) brokerage and other transactions costs, performance fee, interest expense, distribution paid out to unitholders, foreign exchange gains/losses, front or back end loads arising from the purchase or sale of other funds and tax deducted at source or arising out of income received. The Fund does not pay any performance fee. The average net asset value is based on the daily balances.

The portfolio turnover ratio is calculated in accordance with the formula stated in the Code on Collective Investment Schemes. The calculation of the portfolio turnover ratio was based on the lower of the total value of purchases or sales of the underlying investments, divided by the average daily net asset value.

Portfolio Review

The Fund outperformed the benchmark over the past 6 months

The Nikko AM Shenton Short Term Bond Fund (S$) (the "Fund") delivered a gain of 1.22% (SGD terms, NAV-NAV basis) for the 6 months ending 31 December 2018, outperforming the benchmark which returned 0.82%. 2-year US Treasury yields fell by 4 basis points (bps), while 1 to 3 year SOR rates were down by about 1 to 35bps over the same period. Strong credit selection as well as duration management supported the Fund's outperformance. Meanwhile, our holdings in United Overseas Bank Ltd. (Singapore) 3.5% 16-Sep-2026, Keppel Land Financial Services Pte Ltd. 3.259% 11-Dec-2019, and Sk Broadband Co., Ltd 2.875% 29-Oct-2018 were among the top performers.

Changes to Fund characteristics

As of 31 December 2018, the Fund's weighted average duration* and weighted average yield-to-maturity were at 1.08 years and 3.36% (hedged in SGD terms), respectively. The average credit rating of the Fund is at A-. The Fund is diversified across 131 bonds, with 105 issuers from 16 countries, with an average weight of 0.88% per issuer. During the month, the level of cash and cash equivalents was at 7.09%.

Market Review

US Treasuries (USTs) ended higher

The start of the period saw UST yields being largely capped, with long-end yields trading at a tight range, as US and China escalated their trade war. However, short-end yields rose as markets priced in a well-anticipated September Federal Reserve (Fed) rate hike of 25bps. The positive trajectory of the US economy thereafter, together with hawkish comments from Fed Chairman Jerome Powell supported a spike in yields, with 10-year yields reaching 3.25% on 9 October. However, the rise in yields proved to be short-lived, as the continuation of the US-China trade war, weak economic numbers from China, coupled with a precipitous decline in global oil prices dissuaded investors from adding on risk. Moreover, a slew of disappointing earnings results from US companies caused a significant correction in US equities thereafter, causing UST yields to slide. In December, risk assets came under continued pressure from a multitude of factors including growth concerns in major economies, an increased likelihood of a no deal Brexit, US government shutdown and a sharp decline in risk assets and energy prices. Notably, the ceasefire in the US-China trade war at the G20 summit did little to support sentiment. Despite these developments, the Fed raised rates anew, sending equity indices to the year's lows. As markets began to price out any rate hikes in 2019, 10year yields moved lower, towards levels last seen in January 2018. Overall, 10-year yields ended at 2.69%, about 18bps lower compared to end-June.

Asian credits registered positive total returns

The move lower in UST yields drove overall Asian credits to rebound in the last six months of 2018, despite a widening in credit spreads. Idiosyncratic concerns in Turkey and Argentina at the start of the period adversely affected investor sentiment for risky assets. The resulting sharp falls in some Emerging Market (EM) currencies including the Indian Rupee (INR) and Indonesian Rupiah (IDR) added to investor concerns and pushed credit spreads wider. Bank Indonesia (BI) lifted interest rates by a total of 175bps so far in this cycle, largely as a response to stabilise the rupiah. Similarly, central banks in the Philippines, India, Thailand and South Korea also tightened their monetary policies in the second half of 2018. Notably, the Philippine central bank's aggressive move substantiated its resolve to rein in rising inflation expectations.

Over the period, growth in Asia moderated across much of the region, primarily due to weakness in the external front. The slowdown in China's economic momentum remained a primary focus. In particular, concerns that China's deleveraging efforts have started to tighten financial conditions onshore and further drag down domestic growth, weighed on spreads.

Market Outlook & Strategy

Volatility Likely to Persist into 2019

Heading into 2019, the macroeconomic backdrop for Asian countries should remain broadly neutral for credit performance. GDP growth is expected to moderate across the key economies, notably China, although hard landing scenarios are not expected to materialise. Fiscal policy should remain supportive of growth in most Asian economies, notably China, and act as a stabiliser to weakness in external and private domestic demand. Given the national elections in India and Indonesia, some fiscal slippage is to be expected, although the broad fiscal consolidation trend in these countries remain intact and is likely to resume in the coming years. Last but not least, with inflation remaining subdued, monetary policy is expected to stay neutral to accommodative across most Asian economies. The US and China are currently in negotiations to resolve the trade conflict, with a tentative deadline of 1 March 2019 to reach a deal. Failure to come to a compromise, on trade and other strategic issues, will likely be negative for credit spreads and broader risk environment.

Valuations look attractive from historical context

Both high-grade and high-yield spreads have cheapened over the course of 2018. High-grade spreads are at 214bps, which is near the historical post global financial crisis mean level. With the high-yield underperformance in 2018, high-yield corporate spreads at 621bps have cheapened to a level last seen in 2016. Even after the rally in UST yields in December 2018, high-grade yields have risen to a more attractive level of 4.79%; a level last seen during the taper-tantrum in 2013 prior to this sell-off in 2018. Similarly, high-yield corporate yields have risen to 8.87%; a level last seen in 2012 after the European crisis.
