Distributions are not guaranteed. Distributions may be paid out of distributable income, capital or both. Important Notes: (i) Payment of distributions out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment; and (ii) Any distributions involving payment out of the Fund's capital may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit. "N.A." means that the relevant class does not distribute dividends.

Performance Disclosure:

(p.a.): per annum. Source: Eastspring Investments (Singapore) Limited. Returns are based in the relevant class currency and computed on bid-bid basis with net income reinvested, if any. Offer-bid is inclusive of sales charge which is subject to changes. Since inception returns for periods less than a year are not annualised. The benchmark for the hedged classes, if any, is also calculated on a hedged basis. From inception to 29-Apr-16, the benchmark was the HSBC Singapore Local Currency All Bond Index. Calendar year returns are based on the relevant class performance for the year, and if the relevant class was inceptioned during a particular year, the returns shown relate to the performance of that class since its inception to the end of that calendar year. Wef July 2018, the monthly fund and benchmark returns calculated are aligned to the last NAV date of the fund for the month. Past performance information presented is not indicative of future performance.

COMMENTARY

Fund Review

In June, Singapore bonds delivered another positive month, with the representative Markit iBoxx ALBI Singapore Index rising by 0.67%. Singapore Government Securities (SGS) were lifted by yields falling in a steepening fashion. The SGD corporate bond market also strengthened but gains were more modest.

During the month, the fund outperformed the benchmark. The outperformance was driven partly by the non-benchmark exposure to Asian USD-denominated credit (hedged back to SGD), which outperformed SGD-denominated credits on the back of credit spread tightening and declines in US interest rates. That said, security selection in some SGD-denominated financial credits added to relative performance. Positive carry effect also contributed to relative returns. Against this, the underweight to SGS detracted, especially at the front end of the curve, where yields fell by more than the longer end.

Outlook

With the Fed adopting a more benign policy path amid the slowing growth environment, we expect interest rates to be capped on the upside in the medium term. Under such an environment, investors' demand for yield is expected to remain supported. Given relatively less attractive government bond yields, we will maintain an overweight to corporate bonds for higher carry; we expect that prevailing corporate bond valuations will continue to be supported by strong structural demand, although returns are likely to be driven by interest income rather than further spread tightening.

Notes:

As announced by the CPF Board in March 2018, for funds offered through the CPF Investment Scheme (CPFIS), sales charge will be removed progressively to reduce the cost of investing for CPFIS members. Refer to <https://www.cpf.gov.sg/members/News/news-categories-info/cpf-changes/2346> for further details (URL link as of March 2018).

#The CPF interest rate for the Ordinary Account (OA) is based on the 12-month fixed deposit and month-end savings rates of the major local banks. Under the CPF Act, the Board pays a minimum interest of 2.5% per annum when this interest formula yields a lower rate. The interest rate for the Special Account (SA) and Medisave Accounts (MA) is pegged to the 12-month average yield of 10-year Singapore Government Securities (10YSGS) plus 1%, or current floor interest rate of 4% per annum, whichever is the higher. The interest rate to be credited to the Retirement Account (RA) will be the weighted average interest of the entire portfolio of Special Government Securities (SSGS) which the RA savings are invested in, which earn a fixed coupon equal to the 12-month average yield of the 10YSGS plus 1% at the point of issuance, or current floor rate of 4% per annum, whichever is the higher. As announced in September 2018, the Government has decided to further extend the 4% floor rate for interest earned on SA, MA and RA monies for another year until 31 December 2019. In addition, the CPF Board will pay an extra interest rate of 1% per annum on the first S$60,000 of a CPF member's combined balances, including up to S$20,000 in the OA. Only monies in excess of S$20,000 in the OA and S$40,000 in the Special Account can be invested.

Investors should note that the applicable interest rates for each of the CPF accounts may be varied by the CPF Board from time to time. Please visit the CPF Board Website for further information on CPF interest rates.
