Objective

The fund seeks to provide long-term capital growth. Effective 3 March 2014, Vanguard U.S. Discoveries Fund is closed to all new accounts: existing shareholders can still make additional share purchases.

Investment strategy

The fund employs an active management strategy to invest mainly in US stocks. The fund invests in stocks of small companies that tend to be unseasoned but are considered by the fund's Sub-Investment Manager, Granahan Investment Management, Inc., ("Granahan") to have superior growth potential. Also, these companies often provide little or no dividend income.

Key investment risks - The value of investments, and the income from them, may fall or rise and investors may get back less than they invested. Where investments are made in assets that are denominated in multiple currencies changes in exchange rates may affect the value of the investments.

*Figures for periods of less than one year are cumulative returns. All other figures represent average annual returns. Performance figures include the reinvestment of all dividends and any capital gains distributions. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred in the issue and redemption of shares. Basis of fund performance NAV to NAV with gross income reinvested. Basis of index performance is total return.

Spliced Russell Microcap Growth Index: Spliced Russell Microcap Growth Index reflects the performance of the Russell 2000 Growth Index through 29 June 2006; Russell Microcap Growth Index thereafter.

**The Ongoing Charges Figure (OCF) covers administration, audit, depository, legal, registration and regulatory expenses incurred in respect of the Funds.
