

Pictet Funds (LUX) – Piclife

Simplified Prospectus (January 2010)

Important information

This prospectus contains the basic information relating to the Pictet Funds (LUX) - Piclife compartment (the “Compartment”). For more detailed information, please consult the most recent version of the full prospectus of the Pictet Funds (LUX) (the “Fund”). The full prospectus, as well as the latest annual and semi-annual reports, may be obtained free of charge from the Fund or the Custodian Bank.

1. Legal structure

Pictet Funds (LUX) (the “Fund”) is an open-ended investment company (SICAV) with multiple compartments incorporated under Luxembourg law in accordance with the provisions of Part I of the Law of 20 December 2002 relating to undertakings for collective investment. The Fund was incorporated for an indefinite period on 20 September 1991 under the name of Pictet Umbrella Fund. Its Articles of Association were last amended by notarial act on 23 January 2009. The Fund has designated Pictet Funds (Europe) S.A. (the “Management Company”) to act as management company in compliance with Section 13 of the Law of 20 December 2002.

2. Investment policy and objectives

The aim of this Compartment is to allow investors to benefit from the general investment strategy of the Pictet Group, by providing the opportunity to invest in an overall balanced portfolio that may broadly be inspired by the investment policy applicable to the Swiss pension funds.

The compartment will invest a minimum of two-thirds of its total assets or wealth in shares and in fixed-income investments throughout the world. In addition, the Compartment may also invest up to 10% of its net assets in UCIs.

The Compartment may also invest in structured products, such as bonds or other transferable securities whose returns may for example be linked to the performance of an index, transferable securities or a basket of transferable securities, or an undertaking for collective investment.

Investments in debt instruments as defined by the European Directive 2003/48/EC will not exceed 40%.

Specifically, the Compartment may conduct credit default swaps as described in greater detail in the full prospectus.

The Compartment may use derivative techniques and instruments for the purpose of efficient management within the limits defined in the investment restrictions.

3. Risk profile of the Compartment

The Compartment is subject to certain risks inherent in any investment, such as the following:

- risks specific to a given market
- variations in exchange rates
- variations in interest rates.

Invested capital may fluctuate downwards as well as upwards, and investors may not recuperate the entire value of the capital initially invested.

Investors should be aware that the acquisition of derivative instruments involves certain risks that could have a negative effect on the performance of the Compartment. In addition, due to their volatility, warrants present an above-average economic risk.

For further information regarding the risks associated with the investment policy, please refer to the full prospectus.

4. Typical investor profile

The Compartment is an investment vehicle for investors:

- who wish to invest in the shares and bonds of listed companies, as well as in money market instruments throughout the world;
- who seek a moderate but more stable capital growth than that through exposure to equities;
- whose base currency is the Swiss franc;
- who are prepared to assume rate fluctuations.

In accordance with market practices and in line with the requirements of local distributors, the Distributor may deem it necessary to set minimum subscription levels for shares in the Compartment, limit conversions between share classes and, while remaining within the limits imposed by the prospectus, apply a specific policy for subscription, redemption and conversion fees levied on behalf of local distributors.

- Fees payable by the Compartment

In addition to the fees described in point 5 above, the Compartment will also pay brokerage commissions and fees, the taxe d'abonnement (subscription tax), legal and auditing fees and any other fees incurred on behalf of the Compartment.

9. Tax Status

The Compartment is subject to Luxembourg tax legislation. Purchasers of shares in the Compartment should refer to the Fund's full prospectus and are responsible for ensuring that they are duly informed of the relevant legislation and regulations applicable to the acquisition, holding and sale of its shares, in light of their residence and nationality.

In accordance with legislation in force in Luxembourg, the Compartment is not liable to any Luxembourg tax, withheld at source or otherwise, on capital gains or income. However, the net assets of the Compartment are subject to tax at an annual rate of 0.05%, payable at the end of each quarter and calculated on the basis of the Compartment's net assets at the end of each quarter. This tax will be reduced to 0.01% for assets relating to shares reserved for institutional investors.
