Investment strategy

Between 0% and 100% of the fund is invested in European equities and/or money market products, its aim being to outperform the benchmark index (50% capitalised Eonia + 50% Eurostoxx 50 NR) over an investment period of at least three years. The fund is managed on a discretionary basis, and can make the most of market conditions by freeing itself from benchmarks.

Portfolio manager comment

In June, equity indices continued the recovery started in late March. The EURO STOXX 50 NR rose by 6.40% over the month, the DJ STOXX 50 NR 3.56% and the MSCI SMID Cap NR 1.81%. Cyclical continued to make up for lost ground relative to defensive stocks, particularly in the banking, insurance and technology sectors. Conversely, health care, food, telecoms and real estate remained stable, as did oil.

Oil and metal prices continued to trend upwards. They reflect an upturn in global activity across the board, likely boosted by overactivity in certain areas post-lockdown.

After rising at the beginning of the month, government bond yields ended the month virtually unchanged.

Mounting geopolitical tension, whether in the form of pressure from China on Hong Kong (putting further strain on relations between China and the US) or differences of opinion within the EU between so-called northern saints and southern sinners, were not enough to rattle the markets. Feathers were temporarily ruffled only by localised outbreaks of COVID-19 in Asia and the United States (Arizona, Florida and Texas). The threat of a second wave was still at the forefront of people's minds, especially as the epidemic raged through Latin America.

Individual countries and the European Union brought in a raft of stimulus measures in response to the economic damage caused by the pandemic.

Profit-taking in May limited our ability to harness the market's rise in June. We took advantage of the consolidation on high-quality but volatile names over the month, raising the investment rate from 27% to 33%. We therefore opened or reopened three lines in MTU, Safran (aerospace equipment) and Bayer (health care and agrochemicals).
