Investment Objective

To invest primarily in regulated collective investment undertakings which aim to achieve, over the long term, a balanced return of income and capital growth from a diversified portfolio of equities and bonds.

Portfolio Features

- This MultiManager portfolio is currency-hedged and diversified across traditional asset classes, regions and third-party managers.
- Alpha is generated via exposure to third party investment managers and the implementation of tactical asset allocation views.
- The structure of the portfolio allows for tax efficient investment management.
- As a market return product, the value of the investment could go up and down, and you could lose money.
- This portfolio is available in Accumulation (Acc) and Distribution (Dist) shares

Portfolio Performance

Past performance of the fund, underlying funds and managers is not necessarily indicative of its future or likely performance. Your investment should be regarded as medium to long term. The performance shown takes into account the effect of annual management fees, transaction costs and any applicable taxes with net income re-invested, but not the effect of any initial charges that may be applicable. The effect of initial charges means that investors would have got back slightly less than shown.

Fund performance calculated on a mid-price to mid-price, total returns basis, for the same currency.

Commentary

- Markets saw positive performance over the month with both developed and emerging markets equities gaining ground. Prospects for corporate profits in the US are positive as investors perceive the current US administration as more business friendly than the previous one
- Within equities, Asia ex-Japan and US were the best performing markets benefiting from the depreciation of their currencies. Emerging markets rebounded strongly as the prospects for global growth continue to improve
- Within fixed income, most asset classes registered moderate gains with emerging market debt and high yield being the best performing sectors
- Manager selection in January was positive across the different asset classes

In some circumstances, we may be prepared to lend against the value of securities. The loan to value figure indicates the maximum percentage of an investment that we may be prepared to consider as collateral. This figure may be subject to change at our discretion.

Risk Factors

Charges to Capital: Part, or all of the periodic annual management fee(s) and expenses may be charged to capital which could increase the potential for the capital value of your investment to be eroded. Your capital could also decrease if income withdrawals exceed the growth rate of the fund(s).

Emerging Markets: The fund invests in emerging markets. Generally less well regulated than the UK. There is an increased chance of political and economic instability with less reliable custody, dealing and settlement arrangements. The market(s) can be less liquid. If a fund investing in markets is affected by currency exchange rates, the investment could either increase or decrease. These investments therefore carry more risk.

Smaller Companies: The fund invests in smaller companies. Smaller companies shares can be more volatile and less liquid than larger company shares, so smaller companies funds can carry more risk.

High Yield Bonds: The fund invests in high yield bonds. High yield bonds carry a greater risk of default than investment grade bonds, and economic conditions and interest rate movements will have a greater effect on their price. Income levels may not be achieved and the income provided may vary.

Value Of Investments: The value of investments, and any income can fall, as well as rise, so you could get back less than you invested. Neither capital nor income is guaranteed.

Investments Long Term: Investments should be regarded as long term and are not suitable for money which may be needed in the short term, you should always have a sufficient cash reserve.

Exchange Rate: This fund invests in securities denominated in multiple currencies. The value of investments and any income from them may therefore decrease or increase as a result of changes in exchange rates between currencies.

Derivative Exposure: The Fund may use derivatives in an attempt to reduce risk (hedging) or for investment purposes. Investors should be aware that the use of these instruments can, under certain circumstances, increase the volatility and risk profile of the Fund beyond that expected of a fund that only invests in equities. The fund may also be exposed to the risk that the company issuing the derivative may not honour their obligations which in turn could lead to losses arising.
