Fund results are shown after fees and expenses and are calculated as the increase or decrease in net asset value of the fund over the relevant period. The net asset value is calculated based on close-of-business prices for performance and fee calculation purposes only. No dealing activity can be based on such net asset value. Please refer to capitalgroup.com/europe for further information on net asset value applicable to any dealing activity in the fund, and for other share classes; these have different fees and expenses, and returns will differ. Results data does not take account of costs incurred on the issue of shares. Inception of the fund share class on 25 April 2013. Results prior to this relate to the older share classes, adjusted where necessary to reflect the management fee of the recipient share class. Past results are not a guarantee of future results. Index is the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Bond Total Return which is provided for indicative purposes only. Index uses Blackrock Aladdin.

Effective duration takes into account that expected cash flows will fluctuate when interest rates change and is expressed in years to maturity.

Risk statistics are based on close of market returns (T+1).

Standard deviation (absolute volatility) is a measure of the absolute variability of returns and the larger the standard deviation, the greater the likelihood (and risk) that a fund's results will fluctuate from the average return. It is based on monthly observations using a population standard deviation calculation.

Tracking error (volatility relative to benchmark) measures the volatility of the difference between a portfolio's results and the benchmark.

Information ratio (risk adjusted relative return) represents the value added of the manager (excess return) divided by the tracking error.

Country, currency and rating breakdowns are data that are likely to change over time and do not constitute a commitment from the management company.

Rating refers to the higher of S&P, Moody's and Fitch for the highest weighted issue.

Dividend yield is the income return on the share class and is shown for distributing share classes only. It is calculated over the last 12 months as income earned by the fund after withholding taxes, fees and expenses. Where hedged share classes are listed, the Fund will aim at hedging, with a reasonable margin of tolerance, the main currency exposures of the Fund (as represented by a relevant representative index) back into the currency referred to in the relevant Class's designation. It is expected that the resulting effective hedge ratio (i.e. the percentage exposure in the currency of the hedged share class) will typically be in the range of 80% to 100%.

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment. In addition to the Total Expense Ratio (TER), entry charges may apply according to provisions described in the Prospectus. Data is likely to change over time and does not constitute a commitment from the management company. Past results are not a guarantee of future results.

Total Expense Ratio (TER) is calculated over the last 12 months with a one month lag. TER data is therefore as at 31 December 2019.
