(the "Sub-Fund") a Sub-Fund of Lombard Odier Funds (the "SICAV")

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Sub-Fund aims to generate regular income and capital growth. It mainly invests in bonds, other fixed or floating-rate debt securities and short-term debt securities issued or guaranteed by governments that are OECD members (not including Switzerland, Luxembourg and Iceland). The Investment Manager applies a proprietary methodology. This determines and adjusts the relative size (weighting) of investments in each issuer according to the strength of its economy. The approach aims to ensure that the biggest investment weightings are in issuers with the greatest capacity to repay their obligations (the higher the risk of default of an issuer, the lower the weight in the portfolio). The Investment

Manager also actively manages the portfolio based on his/her own particular views.

The use of derivatives is part of the investment strategy.

Risk and Reward Profile

What does it mean?

This indicator (SRRI) represents the annualized historical volatility of the Sub-Fund over a 5-year period. Where there are less than 5 years worth of data, missing returns are simulated using an appropriate benchmark. The SRRI may change over time and should not be used as an indicator of future risk or returns. Even the lowest risk classification does not imply that the Sub-Fund is risk-free or that capital is necessarily guaranteed or protected.

Category

The classification of this Sub-Fund in this category is based on the volatility of the Sub-Fund's weekly returns over the last 5 years. The Sub-Fund is likely to be less volatile than other funds in the same category. This is because it weights investments according to the strength of each economy, whereas most similar funds are tied by rules based on the size of each market.

Are there any other particular risks?

The following risks may be materially relevant but may not always be adequately captured by the synthetic risk indicator and may cause additional loss:

- Credit risk: A significant level of investment in debt securities or risky securities implies that the risk of, or actual, default may have a material impact on performance. The likelihood of this depends on the credit-worthiness of the issuers.
- Risks linked to the use of derivatives and financial techniques: Derivatives and other financial techniques used substantially to obtain, increase or reduce exposure to assets may be difficult to value, may generate leverage, and may not yield the anticipated results. All of this could be detrimental to fund performance.
- Model Risk: Models may be misspecified, badly implemented or may become inoperative when significant changes take place in the financial markets or in the organization. Such a model could unduly influence portfolio management and expose to losses.

For more details about risk, see section 5 "Risk Factors" of the prospectus.
