This indicator (SRRI) represents the annualized historical volatility of the Sub-Fund over a 5-year period. Where there are less than 5 years worth of data, missing returns are simulated using an appropriate benchmark. The SRRI may change over time and should not be used as an indicator of future risk or returns. Even the lowest risk classification does not imply that the Sub-Fund is risk-free or that capital is necessarily guaranteed or protected.

HIGHLIGHTS

LO Selection - Capital Accumulation targets a return of cash + 5% p.a. while aiming to limit maximum drawdowns to 10% p.a. Its investment strategy focuses on generating steady returns while accumulating capital across economic cycles (expansion, recession and inflation). The fund follows a proprietary risk-based investment process in which portfolio asset allocation is driven primarily by a selection of five risk factors: developed equities, emerging equities, sovereign bonds, credit and commodities. The weights of the underlying investments are adjusted in such a manner that risk is spread across these five factors according to a risk allocation optimized for this risk profile. In addition, we seek to further diversify portfolio risk and returns by incorporating additional strategies aiming to capture alternative risk premia. Portfolio risk exposure is continuously monitored and asset allocation can be adjusted daily if required.

- Model Risk: Models may be misspecified, badly implemented or may become inoperative when significant changes take place in the financial markets or in the organization. Such a model could unduly influence portfolio management and expose to losses.
