Market Comment

Our constructive outlook at the beginning of 2020 gradually lost its relevance as a novel coronavirus outbreak in China turned into a global pandemic. To contain the spread, countries around the world implemented large scale mobility restrictions with an ensuing demand drop, a significant pressure on businesses dependent on social interaction and broad GDP declines. Near the peak of the crisis during the first quarter, we also saw oil cartel OPEC+ break down which caused oil price to lose two thirds of its value. The combined impact of these events caused significant market turmoil and MSCI ACWI experienced a peak-to-trough decline of 34%. Governments and central banks were however quick to acknowledge the severity of the situation and acted swiftly and forcefully by deploying an unprecedented amount of stimulus, to prevent a financial crisis and mitigate the risks of long-term economic harm. Their actions successfully supported investor sentiment and set the stage for improving market conditions. As we later entered the final quarter of 2020, both MSCI World and MSCI Emerging Markets had recouped most of their losses, despite an uneven recovery on a sector and country basis. The year finally ended on a strong note supported by positive news on vaccine and a market friendly outcome in the US election. Looking at equity index performance, MSCI Emerging Markets rose 17.7%, ahead of MSCI World that rose 16% while MSCI Frontier Markets gained 1.3%. Among fixed income indices, returns ranged between 3% and 10% for developed market government bonds while one of the leading Emerging Markets fixed income indices, JP Morgan EMBI Global, gained 5.9%.

Among the actions and events that drove the recovery, the FED made emergency cuts that brought the low end of their rate to zero, while also initiating large scale asset purchases, including bonds and ETFs. The US Government approved a USD 2 trillion fiscal package, the largest in US history, followed by a USD 900bn package at year end, while the EU made new ground with a EUR 750bn recovery fund that included partial debt mutualization and grants. During the final part of the year, we also saw positive vaccine news and US elections. While a vaccine was largely anticipated by markets, the timeliness and effectiveness of the announced vaccines surprised on the upside and made people expect normalization to happen sooner rather than later. As for the US election outcome, Democrat Joe Biden's win was perceived as widely positive as it implies a more orderly discussion on the geopolitical scene, less focus on trade wars and more focus on sustainability and climate change. Democrats have also been more vocal on further substantial fiscal stimulus with up to USD 2 trillion expected in the beginning of 2021.

To illustrate the scale of the economic impact from the pandemic, and the relative success of all measures taken, IMF in June revised their forecast of global growth down to -4.9% from an initial expectation +3.3%, but later on upgraded their forecasts to -3.5% in 2020 and +5.5% in 2021.

Looking at how companies were impacted by the crisis, one of the key differentiators was a strong digital footprint where e-commerce and software-as-a-service (SaaS) companies thrived as digital transformation accelerated. Global consultancy firm McKinsey in a study found that digital offerings had leapfrogged seven years of progress in a matter of months. On the other end of the spectrum, companies related to travel and tourism were severely hit. Banks, while they saw their stock prices decline as low yields and potential loan losses put pressure on future earnings prospects, entered the crisis overall well-capitalized and rebounded strongly in the second half of the year as growth outlook improved.

For equity returns within our universe, Asia stood out as the strongest region with South Korea +39.8%, Taiwan +34.8%, China A +38.6% and China H +28.3%. Driving the outperformance was both the region's success in containing the spread and reopening their economies, as well as their higher share of technology related stocks. The region also saw a boost in the renewables sector as countries globally identified green investments as a medium to long term strategy to drive the recovery and China announced its ambition to become climate neutral by 2060. Among the commodity exposed countries, performance was generally weaker despite a strong fourth quarter when vaccine news resulted in an increased demand for cyclical assets. In Latin America, Brazil led the downside, correcting -20.1% while Mexico ended -0.8%. Russia fell sharply during the first half of the year but ended the full year only -7.1%, partly as oil prices stabilized. Russia's economy, while still very exposed to commodities, remains fundamentally strong with 15% debt to GDP and a sound fiscal balance. In Central Europe and Balkans, most economies did well in handling the pandemic but suffered from their structurally strong trade and tourism integration with the EU and domestic lockdowns. Also, their sector compositions are more tilted towards traditional industries, such as financials, for which the environment has not been benign. They are however well positioned for a continued rebound as an important part of the EU supply chain and strong beneficiaries of the EU recovery funds. In our Frontier universe, especially in Asia and Africa, several countries came under pressure due to a high dependency on remittances and tourism revenues, which both fell sharply during the crisis, and their limited fiscal space. They however gradually recovered thanks to support from IMF and an improving growth outlook.

Outlook

After the eventful year of 2020, we are now looking at a global synchronized recovery with the strongest GDP growth in 44 years. Accompanying this, the new administration in US will likely result in a more orderly geopolitical scene and less uncertainty, while financial markets will continue to be supported by fiscal and monetary expansion, ultra-low interest rates in developed markets and low interest rates in emerging markets. This should benefit valuations through lower risk premiums and discount rates, and support asset flows as investors seek returns and move into riskier segments. We also expect a softer dollar as US real rates move further into negative territory due to the FED's average inflation targeting and net FDI flows into the US turn from positive to negative. A soft USD has historically been very positive for commodities and Emerging Markets.

Among risks posed to the outlook, inflation and the pandemic are considered the biggest. On inflation, the expansive monetary and fiscal policy, combined with FED's new average inflation target and overall strong economic rebound, could result in an inflation overshoot. On the pandemic, while vaccine outlook is generally positive, issues could arise along the way with potential virus mutation and failing logistics.

REPORT OF THE REVISEUR D'ENTREPRISES AGREEE

Report on the audit of the financial statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of East Capital and of each of its sub-funds ("the Fund"), which comprise the statement of net assets and the statement of investments and other net assets as at 31st December 2020 and the statement of operations and other changes in net assets for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of East Capital and of each of its sub-funds as at 31st December 2020, and of the results of their operations and changes in their net assets for the year then ended in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 on the audit profession ("Law of 23 July 2016") and with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs") as adopted for Luxembourg by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier ("CSSF"). Our responsibilities under the Law of 23 July 2016 and ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF are further described in the « Responsibilities of "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" for the Audit of the Financial Statements » section of our report. We are also independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, including International Independence Standards, issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants ("IESBA Code") as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements, and have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities under those ethical requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other information

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information stated in the annual report but does not include the financial statements and our report of the "réviseur d'entreprises agréé" thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors of the Fund for the financial statements

The Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements relating to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements, and for such internal control as the Board of Directors of the Fund determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors of the Fund is responsible for assessing the Fund's and each of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors of the Fund either intends to liquidate the Fund or any of its sub-funds or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Responsibilities of the “réviseur d'entreprises agréé” for the audit of the financial statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a report of the “réviseur d'entreprises agréé” that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Law of 23 July 2016 and with ISAs as adopted for Luxembourg by the CSSF, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Board of Directors of the Fund.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Board of Directors of the Fund's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's or any of its sub-funds' ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our report of the “réviseur d'entreprises agréé” to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report of the “réviseur d'entreprises agréé”. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund or any of its sub-funds to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

as at 31st December 2020

Each Share Class may be offered in EUR, USD, GBP, SEK, NOK, RMB and in any other freely convertible currency as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time.

In case where an indicative net asset value is available and deemed reliable, such indicative net asset value may be used when deemed to better reflect the value of the undertakings for collective investment.

Note 9 - Swing Pricing

A Sub-Fund may suffer a reduction in value as a result of the transaction costs incurred in the purchase and sale of its underlying investments and the spread between the buying and selling prices of such investments caused by subscriptions, redemptions and/or switches in and out of the Sub-Fund. This is known as "dilution". In order to counter this and to protect Shareholders' interests, all the Sub-Funds of the Fund may apply "swing pricing" as part of its daily valuation policy. This will mean that in certain circumstances the Fund may make adjustments in the calculations of the net asset values per Share, to counter the impact of dealing and other costs on occasions when these are deemed to be significant.

If on any valuation day the aggregate transactions in Shares of a Sub-Fund result in a net increase or decrease of Shares which exceeds a threshold set by the Board of Directors from time to time for that Sub-Fund (relating to the cost of market dealing for that Sub-Fund), the net asset value of the Sub-Fund will be adjusted by an amount (not exceeding 1% of that net asset value) which reflects both the estimated fiscal charges and dealing costs that may be incurred by the Sub-Fund and the estimated bid/offer spread of the assets in which the Sub-Fund invests. The adjustment will be an addition when the net movement results in an increase of all Shares of the Fund and a deduction when it results in a decrease.

As at 31st December 2020, no swing pricing was applied.

Note 12 - Subsequent events

Following implementation of regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of 27th November 2019 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector, as amended (SFDR), which governs the transparency requirements regarding the integration of sustainability risks into investment decisions, the consideration of adverse sustainability impacts and the disclosure of Environment, Social, and Governance (ESG) and sustainability-related information, a revised Prospectus of the Fund was issued in March 2021.

All Sub-Funds promote, among others, environmental, social and/or governance characteristics within the meaning of article 8 of SFDR. For all Sub-Funds sector exclusions, controversy analysis, proprietary ESG analysis and active ownership & engagement are applied as part of the security selection process. East Capital Global Emerging Markets Sustainable goes beyond promotion of ESG characteristics and has sustainable investment as its objective within the meaning of article 9 of SFDR. East Capital Global Emerging Markets Sustainable applies all exclusion criteria as outlined in the Prospectus under "Sector exclusions", but in addition, the criteria are extended to alcohol and fossil fuel extraction. Furthermore, East Capital Global Emerging Markets Sustainable applies stricter coverage thresholds than the other Sub-Funds in relation to the ESG analysis as described in the Prospectus under "Proprietary ESG scores", where all portfolio holdings have to be covered at the time of investment.
