RWC Global Emerging Markets Fund

a sub-fund of RWC Funds SICAV | Class B GBP (LU1324052809) | The management company is MDO Management Company S. A. ("MDO")

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objectives

The fund aims to provide long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in global emerging markets and, to a limited extent, frontier markets.

Investment Policy

The fund's non-cash assets will be invested primarily in the securities of companies in global emerging markets and, to a limited extent, frontier markets. The fund may invest in companies listed or headquartered in other locations which have substantial connections to emerging or frontier markets.

The fund may invest in financial derivative instruments for hedging and investment purposes, as well as other techniques and instruments for the purpose of efficient portfolio management.

In order to achieve its investment objective, the fund may invest up to 15 % of its assets in PRC A Shares through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Connect, and up to 30 % of its assets in participation notes.

The fund may also invest in other types of investments on an ancillary basis. In addition, the fund may invest in collective investment schemes.

The fund is not managed with reference to a benchmark index.

Risk and Reward Profile

Lower Risk

Typically lower rewards

Higher Risk

Typically higher rewards

The risk and reward indicator

The indicator above illustrates the position of this fund and a standard risk/reward category scale. The category is chosen based on the volatility of returns over the past 5 years where available, otherwise simulated historical performance data was used and may not be a reliable indicator of the fund's future risk.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time. The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

The fund is in this category because it can take higher risks in search of higher rewards and its price may rise and fall accordingly.

Operational risk

The fund's operations rely on third parties; therefore, there is a risk that the fund could suffer disruption or loss if a third party fails.

Liquidity risk

Investments may suffer liquidity impairment which may affect the fund's ability to buy or sell a position, or in extreme circumstances, accurately value a position without accepting a significant decrease in expected value of an investment.

Credit risk

An issuer of securities, or a trading counterparty, may be unable to meet its obligations when due. A default, downgrade or credit impairment may result in a significant or total loss of the investment.

Derivative risk

Investments in the fund may include financial derivative instruments. Such instruments may be used to obtain, increase or reduce exposure to underlying assets and may create gearing; therefore their use may result in greater fluctuations of the Net Asset Value of the fund. The manager will ensure that the use of derivatives is consistent with the overall risk profile of the fund.

Currency and foreign exchange risk

The fund's investments may be in currencies other than the fund's reference currency. In addition, share classes will be denominated in various currencies. Performance will therefore be affected by fluctuations between currencies.

Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect Risk

The fund may suffer difficulties as a result of its investments in PRC A-Shares through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, which is subject to regulatory change, quota limitations, and operational constraints which may increase counterparty risk, and therefore generate a significant loss of assets.

Emerging markets risk

Investing in emerging and frontier markets tends to be more volatile than investing in mature markets, and so the value of such assets may move sharply up or down. Assets may not be properly held in custody and, as a result, may be lost. Underlying investments may become illiquid. It may be more difficult to sell assets at a fair price in emerging markets.
