Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Man AHL Multi Strategy Alternative Class DN H SEK Shares

(ISIN:IE00BRJT8025) Man AHL Multi Strategy Alternative (the 'Fund') is a sub-fund of Man Funds VI plc (the 'Company').

Man Asset Management (Ireland) Limited, part of Man Group plc, is the Manager of the Company.

Objectives and investment policy

- The Fund aims to achieve medium-term capital growth in all market conditions by being broadly diversified along system styles, asset classes, regions and time horizons, and by allocating all or substantially all of its assets in accordance with a quantitative investment approach. This approach uses a computerised process to identify investment opportunities.
- The computerised process seeks to take advantage of inefficiencies in the market. The Fund can allocate assets to a wide range of investments and strategies which can be grouped into different style categories. The process aims to ensure that its risk is evenly spread across the style categories. For detailed information on the management of risk using this process please refer to the Fund's prospectus.
- The Fund may, directly and indirectly, invest over 20% of its net asset value in emerging markets and over 30% in below investment grade securities.
- The Fund may invest in financial derivative instruments (ie instruments whose prices are dependent on one or more underlying asset, "FDI"), stocks, bonds, other investment funds and currencies. Stocks will be listed and may be issued globally and across all industrial sectors and market capitalisations. Debt instruments may be issued by any government or company and are not subject to investment grade, yield or minimum rating requirements.
- The Fund may invest in money market instruments and cash, government debt instruments and other liquid assets for cash management purposes.
- The Fund will pursue a "long-short strategy" whereby, in addition to buying and holding assets, it may use FDI to take 'short' positions whereby the Fund may make money in respect of issuers whose securities the Fund believes to be overvalued or expects to fall in value.
- The Fund may actively use FDI to achieve the investment objective, for hedging against anticipated movements in a market or a security, or where it is more economically efficient than directly holding the underlying asset. The use of FDI may multiply the gains or losses made by the Fund on a given investment or on its investments generally.
- FDI may allow the Fund to obtain market exposure in excess of the value of the Fund's assets (leverage). The Fund may use currency related transactions to alter its foreign currency exposures.
- The extensive use of FDI, and the fact that FDI may only require a small upfront payment, may mean the Fund is consistently required to hold a substantial portion of its assets in bank deposits and other money market securities.
- The Fund's reference currency is USD. This share class is denominated in SEK. The Fund will use financial derivatives to the extent reasonably possible with the aim of protecting investors against USD / SEK currency fluctuations.
- Any income earned on investments will be added to the value of investors' shares and investors can buy and sell their shares on each dealing day of the Fund.

Risk and reward profile

Lower risk — Higher risk

Typically lower rewards — Typically higher rewards

1	2	3	4	5	6	7

- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.
- The risk and reward profile is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category for this share class is 4 as funds of this nature engage in strategies that typically have a moderate volatility. The calculation is based on the historical volatility of the Fund's performance. Where there is insufficient Fund performance the calculation is based on either the historical volatility of a relevant benchmark for the investment strategy or the manager's Value at Risk limit for the Fund. Please refer to the prospectus for further information relating to the Value at Risk.

The following risks may not be fully captured by the risk and reward profile:

- Emerging markets experience specific risks due to increased volatility, illiquidity, political and economic instability, market turmoil, settlement risk and relatively weak regulatory standards.
- The use of FDI involves additional risks: (i) FDI may be highly sensitive to price movements of the asset on which they are based; (ii) a counterparty to a non-exchange traded FDI may not meet its payment obligations in the event of default; (iii) the use of FDI may result in increased leverage. These risks may lead to significant losses.
- Liquidity characteristics of non-exchange listed investments can be irregular, and may result in higher than anticipated costs to liquidate the investment.
- The Fund's Investment Manager relies on quantitative trading models and data supplied by third parties. If models or data prove to be incorrect or incomplete, the Fund may be exposed to potential losses.
- The Fund may invest in non-investment grade securities which are considered higher risk investments that may cause income and principal losses for the Fund.
- The currency hedging used for this share class to minimise the effect of certain exchange rate fluctuations may not be completely successful and currency hedging transactions will involve counterparty risk.
- The Fund is subject to normal market fluctuations and the risks associated with investing in international securities markets and therefore the value of your investment and the income from it may rise as well as fall and you may not get back the amount originally invested.

A complete description of risks is set out in the prospectus section entitled 'Certain Investment Risks'.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest

Entry charge	Up to 5.00%
Exit charge	None

This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested / before the proceeds of your investment are paid out.

Charges taken from the fund over a year

Ongoing charges	2.21%

Charges taken from the fund under certain specific conditions

Performance fee	20.00% of the aggregate appreciation in value above High Water Mark. Actual last year fee charged: 0.32%

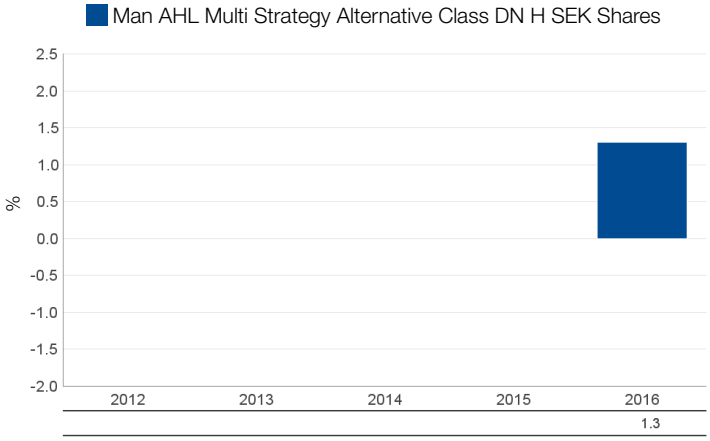

The entry charge shown is a maximum figure and in some cases you might pay less. Please refer to your financial advisor or the distributor for the actual charges.

As this share class has not had a full year of performance, the ongoing charges figure is an estimated figure.

This figure may vary from year to year. It excludes performance fees (where applicable) and portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/ exit charge paid by the Fund when buying or selling units in another sub-fund.

For detailed information on charges and fees please see the 'Fees and Expenses' section of the prospectus.
