DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The environment in 2016

The year 2016 will be remembered by two events that were unexpected: Brexit and the election of Donald Trump as 45th President of the United States. The biggest initial economic worries (weaker than expected Chinese economic growth and the fall in oil prices) recovered quickly. There was no hard landing in China and finally the oil price rebounded, reassuring investors.

US GDP did not decelerate much and data was fairly positive growing $+1.6 \%$, which represents the seventh year of positive numbers in a row. Unemployment rate has fallen to $4.6 \%$ as the economy adds new jobs. The combination of fiscal and tax policies could provide further stimulus.

In Europe the region is still growing at $+1.6 \%$ but we should see an acceleration in 2017 and 2018.
Emerging Markets accelerated $+4.3 \%$ as commodities and resources rebounded. The only big economy delivering red numbers was Brazil, but it is anticipating a good recovery for 2017.

Monetary policies in Europe and USA have desynchronised further. The Fed increased rates in December for the second time in 10 years and the BCE kept its deposit rate (negative) and expanded their QE programme. Markets are anticipating three more increases in the US rates while in Europe rates will remain very low at least for the rest of the year.

The markets in 2016

In this environment equity markets delivered mixed returns in 2016:

| Index | 2016 |
| :--- | ---: |
| S&P 500 | $9.5 \%$ |
| NASDAQ | $7.5 \%$ |
| STOXX50 | $-2.9 \%$ |
| MSCI EMERGING MARKETS | $14.5 \%$ |
| MSCI LATAM | $27.9 \%$ |
| NIKKEI | $0.4 \%$ |
| MSCI WORLD LOCAL | $6.8 \%$ |

2016 delivered a high gap between different geographic regions. Countries like Russia and Brazil led the gains as commodity prices rebounded strongly and political changes were put in place in Brazil.

In the US, the election win by Trump and the prospects of a tax reduction and more fiscal stimulus delivered a sharp rebound in the USD and a good return for the S&P500.

European stocks were weak in 2016. Brexit was not expected and political uncertainty increased, and will continue in 2017. There were concerns also in the banking system (Deutsche Bank and Italian Banks) that did not help investor's confidence.

As the Japanese economy continued to struggle and the Yen kept its strength against the USD, Japanese markets stayed even.

| Index | 2016 |
| :--- | :---: |
| EURO BROAD MARKET 1-3 Years | $0.6 \%$ |
| 1-5 Years EURO GOVERNMENT | $0.9 \%$ |
| GLOBAL HIGH YIELD BB-B | $7.9 \%$ |

In Fixed Income, US high yield led the way both for the year as investors looked to buy risk on the back of a "new hope" that economic growth would continue/accelerate in the US. While recent economic data has been decent, much of the new optimism is a function of the market's belief that the fiscal and economic policies of Presidentelect, Donald Trump, will be simulative.

Within investment grade, longer duration outperformed as investors took comfort in recent rate stabilization. The Federal Reserve ("Fed") met in December and increased the Fed funds rate for the first time in a year. We believe the pace of future Fed rate increases will continue to be based on positive economic data/trends.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT (continued)

In Europe we saw major European rates rally during December (yields down). While European governments and investment grade corporates generated solid, positive performance, high yield outperformed. The European Central Bank ("ECB") unexpectedly lowered its monthly target Quantitative Easing ("QE") program while at the same time extended the timing of the program beyond what the market had expected.

Our SICAV

The management style for the SICAV has not changed during the year. Our strategy consists in investing in high quality assets, trying not to overpay for this good companies, expecting markets to reward its quality in the medium term. In equities we are convinced that sustained earnings growth will be the main driver for price appreciation. By selecting high quality growth stocks we expect to over perform the market in the long term.

In 2016 our strategy delivered mixed returns. Earnings growth in our European selection of equities grew $+7 \%$, while the Stoxx600's earnings decreased by $-1.7 \%$. Our EDM Strategy fund underperformed its benchmark in 2016.

Our US equities delivered strong earnings growth in 2016, but our EDM American Growth underperformed the S&P500 index.

Both our Emerging Markets and Latin American portfolios delivered high positive returns but underperformed its benchmarks due to sector and country allocation.

EDM Spanish Equity Fund, which is a Master Feeder fund of EDM Inversion Fund, delivered a double digit positive return and over performed its Spanish benchmark.

Our Fixed Income portfolios all delivered positive returns while underperforming its benchmarks.
These have been the performances of our funds in 2016:

| Funds | 2016 |
| :--- | :---: |
| EDM CREDIT PORTFOLIO | $8.7 \%$ |
| EDM HIGH YIELD SHORT DURATION | $2.6 \%$ |
| EDM STRATEGY | $-7.8 \%$ |
| EDM EMERGING MARKETS | $7.3 \%$ |
| EDM AMERICAN GROWTH | $1.5 \%$ |
| EDM GAMMA FUND | $-6.3 \%$ |
| EDM LATIN AMERICAN (USD) | $20.7 \%$ |
| EDM SPANISH EQUITY | $11.8 \%$ |

Outlook for 2017

Global growth is expected to be solid again in 2017 (IMF expects $+3.4 \%$ GDP). Fiscal Policy is projected to provide support to economic activity in advanced economies. Monetary Policy is expected to tighten more slowly than envisioned in mid2016. The policy rate in the US is projected to rise gradually but steadily.

In Europe, very low policy interest rates are expected to remain in pace, with short-term rates being kept in negative through 2020.

In EM growth is projected to accelerate to $4.6 \%$ in 2017, due to a recovery in commodity prices. Despite an improvement in external financing conditions, their outlook is weaker than in the past, due to some factors: potential slowdown in China, adjustment to structurally lower commodity revenues and weak demand from advanced economies.

Oil prices are expected to increase gradually over the forecast horizon as geopolitical tensions in some countries in the Middle East are assumed to remain elevated for the rest of the year.

EDM INTERNATIONAL

Inflation will increase developed markets, but will remain under control.
In this environment, European Government bond yields should continue to remain low, but risks will be on the rise, as they are at historical minimum levels. In the US they have already started its rise and will continue to do so.

For 2017 we expect that our selection of quality growth equities will continue to deliver steady earnings growth. We expect to achieve positive performance in our equity portfolios as valuations remain attractive.

NOTE 2 - PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Securities dealt in on another regulated market shall be in respect of each security, the last known price, and where appropriate, the middle market price on the stock exchange which is normally the principal market for such security.

Units in undertakings for collective investment are valued at their last available and published net asset value.
The value of money market instruments not admitted to official listing in any stock exchange or dealt in any other Regulated Market and with remaining maturity of less than 12 months and of more than 90 days is deemed to be the nominal value thereof, increased by any interest accrued thereon.
