For professional, qualified and institutional investors

September 2017

OYSTER ITALIAN VALUE C EUR PR

Investment objective

Managed in accordance with PIR Regulation, the fund's objective is to provide investors with capital growth by investing mainly in Italian equities having a market capitalisation below €3Bn. The manager focuses on under-covered companies neglected by analysts, including niche leaders, and bases his investment policy on fundamental analysis. Stock-picking is based on a bottom-up approach and a value bias, thus focusing on companies attractively priced relative to their fair value.

Manager Comment*HIGHLIGHTS

- Positive economic data supported the Italian stock market in September
- The euro remains strong
- The low-interest-rate environment is supportive of equity investments

MARKET REVIEW

Italian equities rose by 4.5% in September, making it one of the best months of the year for the market as the Italian economy continued to consolidate. Investors seemed to be undeterred by geopolitical concerns in the form of rising tensions between North Korea and the US and better-than-expected results from the far-right anti-European party in the German elections.

FUND REVIEW

The fund's significant underweight in financials detracted from its relative return over the month as the sector performed strongly. The fund's best performer at the individual stock level was Cementir Holding, which rose by 18% over the month. The company decided to sell all of its Italian assets for EUR 315 million. To this end, it signed an agreement with Italcementi, which is fully controlled by HeidelbergCement. This move will reduce Cementir's leverage and is likely to see many of its financial ratios improve. The managers bought Salvator Ferragamo during the month. This Florentine maison is revamping its strategy with the aim of revitalising its brand and gaining market share. They also bought Fiera Milano, a company that organises and manages exhibitions in Milan. The Court of Justice declared that the commissarization procedure after the strategic discontinuity of the new governance and statutory changes is closed. The managers took profits on Assiteca and Cairo Communication (which rose by 12% in September) and liquidated a few small positions such as Bomi, TP and Digital Magics.

OUTLOOK

The European Central Bank's accommodative monetary policy looks set to continue given that inflation is low and the euro strong. Risky assets seem likely to be the favourite choice for investors looking for earnings. Economic indicators are showing that Italy is in a recovery phase, and new regulatory interventions are likely to trigger inflows into Italian equities.
