Royal London Short Duration Global High Yield Bond Fund (Income - Class M Shares)

A sub-fund of Royal London Asset Management Bond Funds plc ISIN: IE00B9BQGL21

Objectives and investment policy

Objective The investment objective of the Fund is to provide income. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by outperforming its benchmark, the 3 Month LIBOR (the “Benchmark”) by 2% per annum over rolling three year periods.

Policy The Fund invests a large portion of its assets in short maturity sub-investment grade bonds (those of lower credit quality) issued by companies domiciled in the UK, Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas. The Fund may also invest in short maturity investment grade securities (higher credit quality). It may also invest in short maturity bonds issued by European governments and government related agencies. The Fund may use financial derivatives, but for efficient portfolio management purposes only.

Recommendation The Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 3 to 5 years.

Concepts to understand

Bonds Securities that represent an obligation to repay a debt, with interest. Investment grade bonds are high quality bonds that are viewed as being highly likely to make all scheduled payments of interest and principal. Low quality bonds carry higher risk but also typically pay higher rates of interest.

Derivative A financial instrument whose price is dependent upon or derived from one or more underlying asset.

Efficient Portfolio Management An investment technique that allows the use of derivatives for at least one of the following purposes: to increase the value of the Fund; to protect the value of the Fund or to reduce the risks of certain investments.

Risk and reward profile

Lower risk

Higher risk

Typically lower rewards

Typically higher rewards

The Fund is ranked in risk category 3 because its simulated unit price has shown a low to medium level of volatility historically. The SRRI was calculated using some synthetic data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile. As an investment, bonds are typically more volatile than money market instruments but less volatile than shares. Bonds issued by corporations are typically more volatile than bonds issued by governments.

The risk and reward indicator is not a measure of the expected rise or fall in capital but shows how sharply the Fund's share price has gone up and down historically.

A fund whose share price has experienced sharp or large increases or decreases will sit in a higher risk category, whereas a fund whose share price has experienced small or gradual increases or decreases will sit in a lower risk category.

The indicator is calculated using a standard methodology that is used by all companies offering such funds in Europe.

The risk/reward indicator is an estimate and not a guarantee. Going forward, the Fund's actual volatility could be higher or lower, and its rated risk/reward profile could change. The lowest risk category does not mean the investment is risk free.

The risk indicator does not adequately capture the following risks, which are materially relevant to the Fund:

Credit Risk Issuers of certain fixed income securities could become unable to make income or capital payments on their debt. As such the value of a security will fall in the event of a rating downgrade or default of the issuer. In general fixed income securities that pay a higher level of income usually have a lower credit rating because of the increased risk of default.

Exchange Rate Risk Investing in assets denominated in a currency other than the base currency of the Fund means the value of the investment can be affected by changes in exchange rates.

Interest Rate Risk Fixed interest securities are particularly affected by trends in interest rates and inflation. If interest rates go up, the value of capital may fall, and vice versa. Inflation will also decrease the real value of capital.

Liquidity Risk In difficult market conditions the value of certain fund investments may be less predictable than normal. In some cases this may make such investments harder to sell at the last quoted market price, or at a price considered to be fair. Such conditions could result in unpredictable changes in the value of your holding.

Emerging Markets Risk Investing in Emerging Markets may provide greater rewards but carries greater risk due to the possibility of high volatility, low liquidity, high currency fluctuation, the adverse effect of social, political and economic instability, weak supervisory structures and weak accounting standards.
