Highlights

DORE's unaudited Net Asset Value (NAV) increased by 1.3% in the quarter, this is after the payment of the previous quarter's 1.345p per share dividend (£2.4m in total). As at Q1'24, the total return since IPO was 33.3% and the dividend for the quarter was 1.450p per share will be paid in June.

The movement in NAV during the quarter was attributable to several factors. Portfolio performance, FX movements and the increase in life extension project (for the wind assets) had a positive impact on the NAV. However, this was partially offset by negative movements in long-term power prices forecasts across the portfolio.

Energy generation was lower than expected in the solar and wind portfolios with hydro performing in line with expectations. Despite this, operating profit was higher than budgeted, largely as a result of selling power at higher than budgeted prices for wind, solar and hvdro.

Investment policy

DORE seeks to achieve its investment objectives* through investment in a diversified portfolio of renewable energy and infrastructure assets in the UK, Ireland and Northern Europe.

- DORE looks to invest in a portfolio of assets that are diversified by technology, geography, revenue and project stage.
- It is expected that no more than 60% of gross asset value in assets will be located in either the UK or Northern Europe and Ireland combined (this policy is 75% until a NAV of £300m is reached).

Risk warning: Your capital is at risk. Investments in DORE should be held for the long term (5+ years). The value of your investment and income derived from it can fall as well as rise and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Targeted returns are targets only and are based on estimates and assumptions. Where any estimates, forecasts or projections have been made, these are what Downing LLP believes to be reasonable as of the date of this document. The market price of electricity is volatile and is affected by a variety of factors. There can be no assurance that DORE's investment objective, target returns or dividend payments will be met. DORE may acquire assets with unknown liabilities. Any change in law and regulation could affect DORE's profits and/or portfolio value and subsequently the value and/or returns to shareholders. Reduced liquidity may have a negative impact on the price of assets. Because shares in an investment trust are listed on the London Stock Exchange their price is affected by supply and demand. This means that the share price may be different from the NAV per share. DORE's investment strategy may involve the use of leverage, which exposes DORE to risks associated with borrowings. Please refer to the latest fund Prospectus and KID before investing; your attention is drawn to the risk, fees and taxation factors contained therein.
