

BMO Balanced Fund

Fund of ETFs

Data as of October 30, 2020

IMPORTANT: Investment involves risk. The price of the units of a fund and its income may go down as well as up and any past performance is not indicative of future performance. Your investment in a fund may suffer losses and there is no guarantee of repayment of principal. Before investing, investors should read the prospectus for details, including product features and risk factors. You should not make investment decisions based solely on information on this document. Please read the offering documents at www.bmo.hk for details including risk factors.

- BMO Balanced Fund (Sub-Fund) aims to achieve long term capital growth while maintaining stable income by investing primarily in a globally diversified portfolio of exchange traded funds (Underlying ETFs) whose underlying assets cover the risk return spectrum. The Sub-Fund seeks to diversify its portfolio across a broad range of underlying asset classes and currencies globally, including emerging markets.
- The Sub-Fund does not have control over the investments of the Underlying ETFs and it is subject to the risks associated with the Underlying ETFs, which include tracking error risks, risks associated with passive investments, liquidity risks and trading risks.
- There may be potential conflicts of interest where the Sub-Fund invests in units/shares of an Underlying ETF managed by BMO Global Asset Management (Asia) Limited (Manager) or its connected person. In the event of such conflicts, the Manager will endeavor to ensure that such conflicts are resolved fairly and all transactions between the Sub-Fund and any of such Underlying ETFs are on an arm's length basis.
- The Sub-Fund adopts dynamic asset allocation strategy, hence may incur greater transaction costs than a fund with static allocation strategy.
- The Sub-Fund and/or the Underlying ETFs may invest in fixed income securities which (or the issuers of which) are rated below investment grade, or may not be rated. Such securities are generally subject to a higher degree of volatility and credit risk, a lower degree of liquidity and greater risk of loss of principal and interest.
- The Manager may at its discretion pay dividends out of the capital of the Sub-Fund. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of the capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment, and may result in an immediate reduction of the new asset value per unit.
