

BEA Union Investment China Gateway Fund

As at 28 February 2020

- The investments of BEA Union Investment China Gateway Fund (the "Fund") are concentrated in China and may be subject to high concentration risk and more volatility than that of funds having a more diverse portfolio of investment. The value of the Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the China market.
- The Fund invests in debts or fixed income securities are exposed to interest rates, credit/counterparty, downgrading, volatility and liquidity, valuation and sovereign debt, credit rating risks and credit rating agency risk (for mainland China onshore debt securities) which may adversely affect the price of the debt securities.
- The Fund is subject to equity markets risk such as changes in investment sentiment, economic conditions and issuer-specific factors which may adversely affect the Fund's value.
- The Fund invests in emerging markets and may be subject to higher liquidity and volatility risks.
- The Fund is subject to China tax risk and any increased tax liabilities on the Fund may adversely affect the Fund's value.
- The Fund may invest in below investment grade, or rated BB+ or below by a China credit rating agency, or non-rated debt securities, which are subject to greater volatility and liquidity risks than higher-rated debt securities.
- The Fund may invest in China A-Shares via Stock Connects, China interbank bond market via Foreign Direct Access Regime and/or Bond Connect which are subject to regulatory risks and various risks such as quota limitation (for Stock Connects), volatility risk, liquidity risk, settlement and counterparty risk. Change in the relevant rules and regulations may have potential retrospective effect. When there is suspension in trading, the Fund's ability to invest in the China market may be adversely affected.
- The manager may at its discretion make distributions from income and/or capital in respect of the distributing classes of the Fund. Distributions paid out of capital amount to a return or withdrawal of part of the unitholder's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit.
- In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that the currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
- RMB is currently not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of the RMB could adversely affect the value of investors' investments.
- The Fund may acquire financial derivative instruments for hedging and investment purposes. Given the leverage effect embedded in financial derivative instruments, the Fund may be exposed to significant losses.
- The Fund may invest in other funds that may not be regulated by the SFC. There is no guarantee that the underlying funds will also have sufficient liquidity to meet the Fund's redemption request.
- Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.
