

Monthly Factsheet

As of 31 December 2020

Important Information

- The Fund invests in mainland China only, thus there is a concentration risk.
- Investors converting a local currency (HK dollar) to take up units of the Fund are exposed to fluctuations in the Renminbi exchange rate, as well as exposure to China's exchange controls and restrictions.
- The Fund is subject to risks pertaining to fixed-income instruments, including interest rate risk, issuer credit risk and liquidity risk.
- Any increase in interest rates or changes in macro-economic policies in the PRC may adversely impact the value of the Fund's fixed income portfolio.
- Fixed income instruments are subject to the credit risk of the issuers which may be unable or unwilling to make timely payments of principal and/or interest.
- The RQFII policy and rules are new and there may be uncertainty to its implementation and such policy and rules are subject to change.
- Investors should make sure the intermediary has explained to you that the Fund is suitable to you before investing.
- Investors should not invest in the Fund solely based on this material.
- By investing in RMB-denominated debt instruments issued by PRC tax resident enterprises, irrespective of whether such securities are issued or distributed onshore ("onshore PRC securities") or offshore ("offshore PRC securities"), and together with onshore PRC securities, the "PRC Securities"), the Sub-Fund may be subject to PRC taxes.
- Dividends on Class A Units may be distributable out of capital or effectively out of capital (i.e. where the Sub-Fund pays dividends out of gross income and charges/pays all or part of the fees and expenses to/out of capital resulting in an increase in distributable income). Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital may result in an immediate reduction of the NAV per Class A Unit. The Manager may amend its distribution policy with respect to distributions out of capital (and/or effectively out of capital) of the Sub-Fund subject to SFC's prior approval and by giving not less than 1 month's prior notice to Unitholders.

Investment Objective

The investment objective is to seek long-term interest income and capital appreciation through investing all of its assets in RMB-denominated fixed income securities issued within PRC.
