What is this product?

This fund is a sub-fund of Amundi Funds, a mutual fund domiciled in Luxembourg and its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier.

Objectives and Investment Strategy

To achieve long-term capital growth. Specifically, the fund seeks to outperform (after applicable fees) the MSCI South East Asia index.

The fund invests mainly in equities of companies in countries that are members of the Association of the Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN). It will invest at least 67% of its assets in equities of companies that are headquartered, or do substantial business, in ASEAN member countries. The fund may invest in equity-linked notes (including P-Notes) for the purpose of efficient portfolio management with a maximum of 30% of net assets in P-Notes based on China A-Shares. There are no currency constraints on these investments.

Use of derivatives / investment in derivatives

This fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the fund's net asset value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Prospectus for details including the risk factors.

1. Emerging markets risk: According to the objectives and investment strategy of the fund, it will invest in emerging markets which may subject to emerging markets risk. Investment in securities of issuers of emerging markets involves special considerations and risks, including the risks associated with investment in emerging markets, such as currency fluctuations, the risks of investing in countries with smaller capital markets, limited liquidity, higher price volatility, different conditions applying to transaction and control and restrictions on foreign investment, as well as risks associated with emerging markets, including high inflation and interest rates, large amounts of external debt as well as political and social uncertainties.

2. Concentration risk: The fund focuses in investing in Association of Southeast Asian Nations, which may give rise to higher concentration risk than funds that invests in more diversified countries.

3. Equity risk: Investment in common stocks and other equity securities are subject to market risk that historically has resulted in greater price volatility than experienced by bonds and other fixed income securities.

4. Market risk: Value of this fund investments could decrease due to movements in financial markets. The value of the fund can be extremely volatile and could go down substantially within a short period of time. It is possible that your investment value could suffer substantial loss.

5. Risk attached to the use of Financial Derivative Instruments (“FDI”): The fund may invest in FDI for hedging purpose and for the purpose of efficient portfolio management only. Investment in FDI is subject to additional risks, including credit risk of the issuer, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and valuation risk. In adverse situation, the fund’s use of FDI may become ineffective in hedging/efficient portfolio management and the fund may suffer significant losses.

6. Risk specific for participatory notes: participatory notes which are the embedded derivatives instruments allowing investors to indirectly invest in securities listed on certain markets having a complicated or restricted access in emerging countries, may be subject to counterparty risk which is the risk that the broker, dealer or bank that issues the notes will not fulfill its contractual obligations under the notes.

7. Risk of small and medium companies: According to the objectives and investment strategy of the fund, it may invest in emerging markets which small and medium companies are commonly found. Investment in small and medium companies offers the possibility of higher returns but may also involve a higher degree of risk, due to higher risks of failure or bankruptcy and illiquid nature of the small and medium companies’ shares. Investment in small and medium companies’ shares are likely to have a higher risks of price volatility.

8. Risks related to distribution out of capital: For distribution class, Amundi Funds may at its discretion determine to pay dividends out of income or capital of the fund. In addition, Amundi Funds may at its discretion pay dividends out of gross income while charging / paying all or part of the fund’s fees and expenses to the capital of the fund, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the fund, in which case, the fund is effectively paying dividends out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor’s original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of the fund’s capital or payment of dividends effectively out of the fund’s capital (as the case may be) may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per share of the fund. Amundi Funds may change the fund’s dividend distribution policy to pay dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital of the fund subject to the SFC’s prior approval. For change of distribution policy, not less than one month’s prior notice will be provided to affected Shareholders.
