

BEA Union Investment China Phoenix Fund

As at 30 September 2020

- BEA Union Investment China Phoenix Fund ("the Fund") is subject to general investment risk, China market concentration risk, equity market risk, risk associated with Stock Connect, China Tax risk, emerging market risk as well as currency risk.
- In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that the currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
- RMB is currently not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of the RMB could adversely affect the value of investors' investments.
- The Fund may use financial derivative instruments for hedging and investment purposes which may not achieve the intended purposes and may result in significant losses. Risks associated with derivative instrument include counterparty credit risk; liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter risks.
- Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.
