DWS Invest (IE) ICAV GENERAL INFORMATION

Background to the ICAV

DWS Invest (IE) ICAV (the "ICAV") is an Irish collective asset-management vehicle constituted as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds with registration number C194848. The ICAV was incorporated under an Instrument of Incorporation, pursuant to the Irish Collective Asset management Vehicles Act 2015 as amended by the Investment Limited Partnerships (Amendment) Act 2020 (together, the "Acts"), and was registered with the Central Bank of Ireland (the "Central Bank") on 12 July 2019. The ICAV has been authorised by the Central Bank as an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities ("UCITS") pursuant to the provisions of the European Communities (undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) Regulations, 2011 (the "UCITS Regulations") and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013 (section 48(1)) (undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) Regulations 2019 (together the "Central Bank UCITS Regulations"). References to statutes, regulations and laws shall include any amendments thereto. All capitalised terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the ICAV's prospectus dated 15 December 2021 (the "Prospectus").

Schedule of Sub-Funds

As at 30 June 2022, the ICAV has established seven Funds namely DWS Qi Global AC Equity Fund, which launched on 23 October 2019, DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund (together the "Funds" and individually "sub-fund" or "Fund"), which launched as a result of a merger on 28 May 2021, Xtrackers MSCI World UCITS Fund, Xtrackers MSCI China A UCITS Fund, Xtrackers MSCI ACWI UCITS Fund, Xtrackers MSCI USA UCITS Fund and Xtrackers S&P 500 UCITS Fund, which are approved but not launched as at 30 June 2022 and as such no information for these Funds has been presented in the financial statements. Prior to the merger with the ICAV, DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund was a sub-fund of DWS Noor Islamic Funds plc. Please see Note 8 for further details.

The manager of the ICAV is DWS Investment S.A. (the "Manager"), which in turn has appointed DWS Investment GmbH as investment manager (the "Investment Manager") of the Funds. The Investment Manager has appointed DWS International GmbH as sub-investment manager of the DWS Qi Global AC Equity Fund and DWS Investment Management Americas Inc. as the sub-investment manager of the DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund (DWS International GmbH and DWS Investment Management Americas Inc. each a Sub-Investment Manager and together being, the "Sub-Investment Managers").

Shares representing interests in different Funds of the ICAV may be issued from time to time by the Directors. Within each Fund, the Directors may issue Shares of more than one Class. All Shares of each Class will rank pari passu save as provided for in the relevant Supplement. A separate portfolio of assets will be maintained for each Fund (and accordingly not for each Class of Shares) and will be invested in accordance with the investment objective and strategies applicable to the particular Fund. As the ICAV has segregated liability between its Funds, any liability incurred on behalf of or attributable to any Fund shall be discharged solely out of the assets of that Fund.

Investment objective and policy

DWS Qi Global AC Equity Fund

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital appreciation in excess of the MSCI ACWI Index (the "Benchmark"). In order to achieve the investment objective, the Fund will primarily invest in equities of large and mid-cap companies which are either listed and/or domiciled in, or have meaningful economic exposure to both developed markets and emerging markets. With the exception of permitted investments in unlisted securities, the Fund's investments will be listed on Regulated Markets, and may be selected without restrictions to geographical, industrial or sectoral exposure. Such investments may include China A-Shares, which the Fund may invest in directly through Stock Connect as further described in the Prospectus. Individual stocks are selected by the Sub-Investment Manager of the Fund, using a proprietary and dynamic multi-factor allocation strategy designed by the DWS Quantitative investments (Qi) group within the Sub-Investment Manager. The strategy seeks to select and weight investments according to criteria typical of fundamental analysis and technical analysis taking into account a balance between opportunity and risk. Fundamental analysis involves analysis of companies' balance sheet data and valuation metrics, whereas technical analysis involves forecasting the direction of stock prices by analysing historical market price data.

Sharia Investment Guidelines - DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund

DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund undertakes its investment activities in accordance with the Sharia Investment Guidelines. As a consequence, this may mean that the Fund may under-perform, when compared to other investment funds with comparable investment objectives that do not seek to adhere to Islamic investment criteria (for example the inability to invest in interest bearing investment securities and the amount of any donations to charities made up of cash dividends which have been cleansed). The Sharia Investment Guidelines may require the Fund to dispose of investments in circumstances that are less advantageous than might otherwise be the case. In particular, DWS Investment GmbH (the "Investment Manager") will receive the Sharia Supervisory Board's instructions through Khalij Islamic (BVI) Limited (the "Sharia Advisor"), as set out in the Sharia Advisory Agreement executed between the Fund, the Investment Manager and the Sharia Advisor.

Pursuant to such instructions by the Sharia Advisor, the Investment Manager and DWS Investment Management Americas Inc., the Sub-Investment Manager of the Fund, will, for instance, not be allowed to invest in securities and other financial instruments which, in the opinion of the Sharia Supervisory Board of the Sharia Advisor, are not or are no longer, in compliance with the Sharia Investment Guidelines. Similarly, cash balances held by the Fund from time to time may be deposited on terms which shall grant no return on the sum deposited to the benefit of the sub-fund.

Although the Fund intends to observe the Sharia Investment Guidelines at all times, no absolute assurance can be given, as there may be occasions when the Fund's investments do not fully comply with such criteria for factors outside the control of the Fund. The Depositary shall not be responsible for monitoring compliance with the Sharia Investment Guidelines.

Purification of Income - DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund

It is obligatory to purify dividends from prohibited income (e.g. interest earnings, income generated by other impermissible activities, etc).

The Fund may invest only in companies that satisfy the Sharia criteria stated in the Prospectus. Where the Fund invests in a company which satisfies the Sharia Investment Guidelines set out in the Prospectus but which still derives a portion of its revenue from prohibited activities, then the Fund must cleanse, where appropriate, all dividend and income receipts from such a company by donating a certain portion of such dividend receipts to charity.

In order to purify the income received from prohibited activities, an amount equivalent to 5% of all cash dividends received within the Fund will be donated to a charity. The Administrator shall provide a schedule on a semi-annual basis showing the amount to be paid to charities in respect of the prohibited income received from investments of the Fund.

During the course of each financial period, when the Fund receives any dividend, 5% of the dividend will be deducted from the Net Asset Value of the sub-fund and accrued separately.

The Directors shall determine which charities shall benefit from donations (with no direct or indirect benefit accruing to the Sharia Advisor, Sharia Supervisory Committee of the Sharia Advisor, the ICAV, its Funds or any of its investors) and the Fund shall make any donations to such charitable organisations within a reasonable time after such determination in good faith. Such donations will be deducted directly from the assets of the Fund by the Fund. Donations shall be made to charitable institutions as the Directors shall determine from time to time in consultation with the Investment Manager and Sharia Advisor.

It is not permitted to conclude futures or options contracts or other forms of derivative instruments on the Fund's assets without the explicit approval from the Sharia Advisor.

It is not permissible to undertake trading in the shares of a corporation, when the assets of such corporations are exclusively comprised of cash.

The Fund may acquire foreign currency by way of spot currency contracts for the purpose of purchasing listed equity and equity-related transferable securities as well as non-listed securities, for the day-to-day operations of the Fund (subject always to the further restrictions as set out herein i.e. not for the purposes of hedging or entering into short positions) and may sell such foreign currencies by way of spot currency contracts where such foreign currencies are the proceeds of sale of listed or non-listed transferable equity and equity-related transferable securities.

The Fund may purchase units or shares of one or several UCITS provided they are not prohibited under the restrictions specified under investment restrictions as set out in the section of the Prospectus entitled Investment Restrictions, provided that such UCITS shall comply with the Sharia Investment Guidelines.

Subject to the UCITS Regulations and the requirements of the Central Bank, the Sharia Investment Guidelines as set out in the Fund's Supplement shall continue to be complied with. The Sharia Investment Guidelines may be modified from time to time by the Sharia Advisor as deemed appropriate.

The fund aims to generate long-term capital appreciation for investors seeking exposure to global equities. Market Review

In the first half of 2022, MSCI ACWI index slipped by 20.18% (EOD) marking the worst six-month start to a year since 1975. Investors faced a challenging market environment in both equities and fixed income, including record inflation numbers, rising rates and the start of quantitative tightening by the U.S. Federal Reserve as well as slower growth. Russia's invasion of Ukraine added to market uncertainty and inflation woes.

The start into 2022 was turbulent for equity markets. Record inflation spikes, Fed's hawkish tone and a steeper hiking path, Omicron's rapid spread as well as escalated geopolitical Russia-Ukraine tensions weigh down on the markets' sentiment.

The start of Putin's military invasion in Ukraine in February sent shockwaves across financial markets globally. The military escalation and sanctions imposed on Russia prompted investors to sell shares in all industries except basic resources and energy companies. Markets have shifted into a muted risk-off mode while repricing assets and assessing the potential scope and impact of sanctions and economic risks. The path of Russia-Ukraine war remains unclear with elevated market volatility and substantial indirect risks including inflationary pressure, negative second-order effects through Europe and supply chain distortions. Monetary tightening, China's weakness, supply shortages and economic fears added to the market uncertainty. The CBOE Volatility Index (VIX) rose from 17.2 on December 31, 2021, to a peak of 36.4 as of March 7, 2022. The oil price (+37%) as well as some other commodities (coal, gas, wheat) exhibited impressive double-digit gains in Q1.

With inflationary pressures continuing and Europe and the U.S. experiencing the highest inflation for 40-50 years, central banks have been compelled to step up their monetary policy tightening. The Federal Reserve (Fed) made its first interest rate move in March and has already given full priority to fighting inflation. In June, the Fed raised its key interest rate by 75 basis points, the highest rate hike in 28 years. The members of the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) also significantly increased their outlook for policy rates, indicating a federal funds rate at 3.4% by the end of this year already. At its council meeting in June, the ECB also announced interest rate hikes in unusually clear terms. Reacting to the growing yield differentials in the peripheral sovereign bonds within the Eurozone, the ECB additionally announced to work on a new instrument against fragmentation of the bond market.

The central banks' measures eased the tension to a certain extent, but inflation alarm has not yet abated. Moreover, recession fears are replacing inflation concerns, especially as Russia is now threatening Europe's energy supply. Moreover, corporate earnings remained at risk with companies facing higher input costs, labor shortages and continued supply-side disruptions. Analysts' downward earnings revisions have put additional pressure on market valuations.

From the regional perspective, the Developed Markets (MSCI World) returned -20.5% (EOD) whereas the Emerging Markets lagged with a loss of -17.61% (EOD). MSCI EMEA lagged other global regions with a decline of 28.41%, driven by the Russia's war in the Ukraine. MSCI China suffered particularly severe in Q1: The continuing difficulties of major Chinese real estate developers, further sector-related regulatory measures, delisting preparations for U.S.-listed Chinese tech companies, and city-wide lockdowns due to the spread of the Omicron variant weigh down on the market returns. The regional winner, mainly due to its geographical and economic distance from the war and its role as a commodity exporter, was Latin America, with an only slight loss of -0.55% for the 1. HY.

Through the factor lens, the turbulent market environment in 1.HY 2022 has intensified factor rotation. At the beginning of the year, interest rate dynamics boosted a change in investment style in the equity markets, out of interest-sensitive growth stocks into value stocks. Value factors posted impressive gains in January, dominating all other styles. The market's shift into muted risk-off mode caused rotation to defensive factors like quality and low risk which continued in March, while also growth and momentum outperformed (cyclical) value stocks. In Q2, the focus on equity valuations supported value factor dominance again, given earnings growth concerns and increasingly strong headwinds from the bond market. Declining macro-economic data put cyclically sensitive value stocks under pressure in the second half of June, with quality stocks rebounding after a prolonged underperformance period.

Performance Summary

During the 1. HY, the DWS Qi Global AC Equity Fund lost 21.46% in USD (NAV based) while underperforming its respective benchmark (MSCI All Country World Net Index) by 0.36%. Since inception, the fund is up 19.06% outperforming the benchmark by 1.88% (NAV based), as of 30.06.2022.

Accelerated reversal of factor trend from growth and quality stocks into value driven by the interest rate dynamics was challenging for the stock selection ability of our multi-factor model. January was the most severe month in terms of relative performance. Additionally, geopolitical tensions and Putin's war against Ukraine unfolded highly skewed impact on sectors, regions and companies. However, the magnitude of the fund's underperformance in February and March was still moderate given the market uncertainty and high intraday volatility. In Q2, the fund rebounded in relative terms, offsetting some of the underperformance.

In our model, Valuation indicators could demonstrate a high discriminatory power during the Value outperformance in January, April and May. Due to the overall positive predictive power of Value, the weight of Valuation indicators increased consistently. Additionally, Analyst Sentiment indicators, such as analyst revisions, exhibited a relatively stable positive predictive power in our universe, reflecting analysts' re-assessment of the current crisis environment. However, Financial Strength and Growth indicators struggled to differentiate regarding relative returns in the cross-section of the stock universe with the exception of March and June.

In terms of factor attribution, the exposure to Valuation indicators paid off in the fund YTD being the largest positive excess return component. However, the overall Value dominance over other styles diminished the factor diversification in the 1. HY 2022. In particular, the Earnings Growth exposure detracted return, corresponding to the overall factor performance. After negative contributions in Q1, Financial Strength indicators recovered in June. Furthermore, the war's specific impact on particular companies and sectors had a dominant effect on the strategy's relative development in a volatile market environment in March, inducing pronounced negative idiosyncratic return component.

Regionally, negative active attribution results came from DM. The Emerging Markets block remained fairly robust with a moderate positive contribution. The fund was underweighted in Russia. Two remaining DRs were liquidated on Feb. 16th based on risk considerations.

In terms of the sectoral breakdown, the Energy sector clearly led the market with a 14.83% gain, while Information Technology, Communications and Consumer Discretionary each lost more than 25%. The fund exhibited controlled moderate sector exposures, thus, no strong allocation effects determine the total active return. Security selection worked well in Energy and Consumer Staples sectors, whereas it was the most challenging in Industrials and Information Technology.

Market Review

To start the period, Precious Metals ended the month of January down slightly, though Gold held on near the $1,800/oz level as safe-haven demand picked up in the final week of the month. Pressure loomed as the era of easy money drew to a close; persistent inflation and signs of a healthy labor market supported the Fed's hawkish pivot. Of note, Palladium prices rallied in excess of 23% on concerns that Russian supply (which accounts for ~40% of the global total) would be impacted by potential sanctions.

¹On 28 May 2021 the fund was merged from DWS Noor Islamic Funds plc into DWS Invest (IE) ICAV. Investment objective and policy did not change and the historical performance of Class A since its inception on 14 Feb 2007 has been transferred to Class USD LC; returns are annualized.

During February, Precious Metals reacted sharply to changes in the Russia/Ukraine conflict. Silver led gains across the complex while Gold sustained moves above $1,900/oz level in February as safe-haven demand increased. Meanwhile, Palladium prices continued higher on concerns that Russian supply would be impacted by potential sanctions. Platinum also managed small gain given looser supply and demand dynamics. Heading into March, consumer prices rose over 8% year-on-year, marking the hottest inflation print since 1981 and continuing to cause investors to scramble to add inflation protection to their portfolios via assets such as gold. Surging prices for necessities such as food, energy and shelter made markets increasingly worried about the Fed's ability to engineer a soft landing for the economy. The increase in inflation also took place against still-escalating tensions in Europe. Gold spiked early in March, reacting to worsening conditions in the Russia-Ukraine conflict. The increase in tensions drove gold prices north of $2,000/oz at one point, before closing the month around ~$1,940/oz.

Precious Metals were all sharply lower in April, with nearly all members of the complex down for the month. Gold and Silver prices suffered following increasingly hawkish commentary from Fed speakers leading up to the FOMC on May 4th. However, despite the negative return for Gold, investment demand remained strong with ETF holdings of Gold continuing to rise. Palladium was the exception, ending the month modestly higher. Of note, Palladium prices corrected heavily in May following a quarterly production report from Norilsk Nickel which stated that exports were continuing, with the company also noting that they expected to achieve full-year guidance issued before the invasion of Ukraine. More broadly, Precious Metals were lower again in May, with all members of the complex down for the month except Platinum; there have been instances of auto manufactures substituting Platinum for Palladium given the latter's longer-term supply risk from Russia. Elsewhere within the complex, Gold and Silver prices continued to pull back on the combined weight of a strong U.S. Dollar and higher rates given ongoing hawkish Fed commentary. Precious Metals fared better than their industrial metals counterparts in June, but were still lower for the month. Gold likely derived support from the Fed's focus on longer-term inflation expectations, which have risen to their highest levels in 10 years. Elsewhere across the complex, Platinum and Palladium prices were initially pressured as macro sentiment waned, but stabilized during the back half of the month, the latter drawing support from mine stoppages in the U.S. due to flooding. From here, we expect continued volatility across the space in the near-term while the market digests a more aggressive Fed, persistent USD strength, and the ongoing risks of COVID in China.

Relevant Themes

Russia/Ukraine conflict continues to represent a source of potential risks to the market and reason to hold Gold.

Though the daily ins-and-outs of the conflict have occupied less space on the front page, the risk environment remains elevated from multiple perspectives. Despite the elevated levels of inflation the global economy is already experiencing, there are still commodities where flows have remained largely undisturbed and where direct sanctions have not been put in place. Were either side decide to use these commodities as a bargaining tool (Russia through a decrease or complete stoppage in exports; NATO countries through imposing formal sanctions on Russian volumes), we could see further increases in commodity prices and the inflation that comes with them. We have already observed decreased gas exports flowing to Europe from Russia, though Russian claims this is due to equipment failure, rather than as a geopolitical bargaining chip. There is also the potential for the general geopolitical risk conditions to deteriorate from military or non-military actions, such as an increase in the frequency or severity of threats to utilize nuclear weapons. Finally, we have already seen expectations for growth impacted by both elevated prices and reduced activity levels, particularly within Europe and the US where fallout from the Russia/Ukraine conflict and elevated inflation have greatly impacted macro conditions.

At this juncture, it will be a tall task for policymakers to rein in inflation without driving various economies into recession. The risks that monetary policy is too loose, leading to elevated inflation expectations remaining elevated, or too restrictive, choking off growth and creating recessionary conditions, are both contributing factors to our more positive view on gold. Though they have come off recent highs, we view the resiliency of retail holdings of gold ETFs despite price headwinds as a signal about demand from market participants to hedge rising risk conditions.

What does the future hold for Gold?

While uncertainty about the Russia/Ukraine situation remains elevated, we expect gold prices to continue to benefit from safe-haven demand. The nature and timing of a resolution to the conflict remains very uncertain at this point, driving additional investor allocations to gold. Hotter-than-expected inflation data has resulted in renewed interest in inflation hedges, such as gold, for the time being. We expect Gold price volatility to increase as markets assess how far the Fed will in balancing the shock of policy changes on risk markets and the urgent need to reign in consumer price inflation. With forward markets currently expecting just under 8 hikes for the remainder of the year, any softening of language could be a positive catalyst for gold. We also foresee additional gold price volatility as monetary policy measures across global central banks diverge in the near-term.

Performance Summary

During the first half of 2022, the fund lost -12.50% in USD.

The top 3 individual contributors to the fund were Yamana Gold Inc., Shandong Gold Mining Co., Ltd. Class H, and Endeavour Silver Corp.

The top 3 detractors were Northern Star Resources Ltd, Polymetal International Plc, and Kinross Gold Corporation.

Equity theme expression

Gold miners continue to generate strong cash flow under most price scenarios.

We observe input cost inflation across most miners' portfolios on both the operating and project capital sides of the business. On the operating side, miners highlighted increased costs for fuel and consumables, such as explosives (where Russia is a major producer). Several miners noted increasing supplies on-hand at minesite to combat shortages and this operational cushion could become a source of differentiation among firms. Despite cost increases, we saw strong free cash flow generation across global miners.

We continue to expect strong free cash flows to translate to enhanced shareholder returns, particularly for those firms that are not currently executing large capital investment programs. First quarter results saw several miners initiate or re-affirm existing capital return programs, an attribute of the asset class which we think will gain more visibility as returns are stepped up this year. Using consensus expectations for capital returns, we see the gold sector potentially providing a yield well in excess of that expect on broader equity markets, enhancing its attractiveness.

NOTES TO CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the financial period ended 30 June 2022

1. Statement of compliance

These unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, "Interim Financial Reporting". These condensed financial statements do not contain all of the information and disclosures required in annual audited financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the ICAV's audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2021, which have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as adopted by the European Union (the "EU"), the Acts and the Central Bank UCITS Regulations.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

a) Basis of preparation

The condensed financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis and under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

b) Standards and interpretations applicable to future reporting periods

There are no standards, interpretations or amendments to existing standards that are not yet effective that would be expected to have a significant impact on the Funds.

c) Estimates policy

The preparation of these condensed financial statements requires the Directors of the ICAV to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, contingent assets or liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on various factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which forms the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources.

Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

There were no contingent assets or liabilities during the period.

3. Taxation

Under current law and practice, the ICAV qualifies as an investment undertaking as defined in Section 739B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997, as amended. On that basis, it is not chargeable to Irish tax on its income or gains.

However, Irish tax may arise on the happening of a 'chargeable event'. A chargeable event includes any distribution payments to shareholders, any encashment, redemption, cancellation or transfer of shares and the holding of shares at the end of each eight year period beginning with the acquisition of such shares.

No Irish tax will arise on the ICAV in respect of chargeable events in respect of:

- a shareholder who is neither Irish resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for tax purposes, at the time of the chargeable event, provided appropriate valid declarations in accordance with the provisions of the Taxes
 Consolidation Act, 1997, as amended, are held by the ICAV, or the ICAV has been authorised by the Irish Revenue to make gross payments in the absence of appropriate declarations;
- certain exempted Irish tax resident shareholders who have provided the ICAV with the necessary signed statutory declarations; and
- certain transfer of shares between spouses or civil partners.

Dividends, interest and capital gains (if any) received on investments made by the ICAV may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the country from which the investment income/gains are received and such taxes may not be recoverable by the ICAV or its shareholders.

6. Financial instruments and associated risks

The ICAV's financial risk management objectives and policies are consistent with those disclosed in the ICAV's audited financial statements as at 31 December 2021.

7. Fair Value Hierarchy

The Funds are required to classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- Level 1 Quoted market price in an active market for an identical instrument.
- Level 2 Valuation techniques based on observable inputs. This category includes instruments valued using: quoted market prices in active markets for similar instruments; quoted prices for similar instruments in markets that are considered less than active; or other valuation techniques where all significant inputs are directly or indirectly observable from market data.
- Level 3 Valuation techniques using significant unobservable inputs. This category includes all instruments where the valuation technique includes inputs not based on observable data and the unobservable inputs could have a significant impact on the instrument's valuation. This category includes instruments that are valued based on quoted prices for similar instruments where significant unobservable adjustments or assumptions are required to reflect differences between the instruments.

7. Fair Value Hierarchy (continued)

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a Level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgement, considering factors specific to the asset or liability. The determination of what constitutes 'observable' requires significant judgement by the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager considers observable data to be that market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

The Funds recognise transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy as at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred. There were no transfers between Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy during financial year ended 31 December 2021. During the financial period ended 30 June 2022 DWS Noor Precious Metals Securities Fund transferred equity position Alrosa PJSC with fair value of USD Nil from Level 1 into Level 3. There were no other transfers between Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy during financial period ended 30 June 2022.

11. Significant events during the financial period

Mr Alex McKenna resigned from the Board of Directors on 23 February 2022.

Mr Felix Jueschke was appointed to the Board of Directors on 30 May 2022.

Coronavirus crisis

The coronavirus (COVID-19) has spread since January 2020 and has subsequently led to a serious economic crisis. The rapid proliferation of the virus was reflected in, among other things, significant price market distortions and substantially increased volatility at the same time. Restrictions on freedom of movement, repeated lockdown measures, production stoppages, as well as disrupted supply chains, are exerting major pressure on downstream economic processes, which caused global economic prospects to deteriorate considerably. Even though gradual recovery or a return to a certain "normality" was to be observed again in the markets in the interim – due, among other things, to assistance programs in the context of monetary and fiscal policy as well as vaccination campaigns – the actual or possible mid- to long-term effects of the crisis on the economy, individual markets and sectors, as well as the social implications, cannot be reliably evaluated or adequately forecast at the time of preparing this report in light of the pace of the global spread of the virus and the associated high degree of uncertainty. Consequently, there may still be a material impact on the Funds' assets.

A high level of uncertainty exists in relation to the financial implications of the pandemic, as these are dependent on external factors such as the spread of the virus/emerging variants and the measures taken by individual governments and central banks, the successful stemming of the development of infection rates and the speedy and sustainable restart of the economy.

The Manager is therefore continuing its efforts, within the framework of its risk management strategy, to assess these uncertainties and their possible impact on the activities, liquidity and performance of the Funds. The Board of Directors of the ICAV is ensuring that the Manager is taking all measures deemed appropriate to protect investor interests to the greatest possible extent. In coordination with service providers, the Board of Directors of the ICAV observed the consequences of the coronavirus crisis and adequately included its impact on the Funds and the markets in which the Funds invest into its decision-making processes.

As of the date of this report, no significant redemption requests had been made in respect of the Funds; the effects the Funds' share certificate transactions are continuously monitored by the Manager; the performance capability of the most important service providers did not experience any significant impairment. In this context, the Board of Directors of the ICAV satisfied itself in line with numerous national guidelines and following discussions with the most important service providers (especially the Depositary, the Sub-Investment Managers and the Administrator) that the measures taken and the business continuity plans put in place (including extensive hygiene measures on the premises, restrictions on business travel and events, precautions to ensure the reliable and smooth running of business processes in the event of a suspected case of coronavirus infection, expansion of the technical options for mobile working) will curb the currently foreseeable or ongoing operational risks and will ensure that the Funds' activities will not be disrupted.

At the time of preparing this report, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that there are no signs indicating any doubt on the ability of the Funds to continue as a going concern, nor were there any liquidity problems for the Funds.

11. Significant events during the financial period (continued)

Russia/Ukraine crisis

The conflict between Russia and Ukraine marked a dramatic turning point in Europe, which, among other things, is expected to have a lasting effect on Europe's security architecture and energy policies and to cause considerable volatility. However, the specific or possible medium to long-term effects of the crisis on the economy, individual markets and sectors, as well as the social implications, cannot be conclusively assessed due to the uncertainty at the time of preparing this report. The Manager is therefore continuing its efforts, within the framework of its risk management strategy, to assess these uncertainties and their possible impact on the activities, liquidity and performance of the respective sub-fund. The Board of Directors of the ICAV are ensuring that the Manager is taking all measures deemed appropriate to protect investor interests to the greatest possible extent.
