What is this product?

Threadneedle (Lux) – Emerging Market Debt (the “Portfolio”) is a portfolio of Threadneedle (Lux), an investment company (i.e. a mutual fund) with variable capital constituted in Luxembourg. The home regulator of Threadneedle (Lux) is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier in Luxembourg.

Threadneedle (Lux) – Emerging Market Debt

Objective and Investment Strategy

The Portfolio seeks to achieve a return from income and capital appreciation by investing at least two-thirds of its assets in sovereign bonds and corporate bonds issued by borrowers from emerging market countries.

The Portfolio may also invest up to one-third of its assets in other fixed income securities including bonds issued by countries making up the G-7, deposits, cash and near cash.

The Portfolio will use financial derivative instruments for investment, hedging or efficient portfolio management purposes.

Use of derivatives/investment in derivatives

The Portfolio's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the Portfolio's net asset value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

Investment

There is no guarantee that the investment objective of the Portfolio can be achieved. The value of investments held by the Portfolio can fall as well as rise and investors might not get back the sum originally invested, especially if investments are not held for the long term.

Volatility

The prices of the Portfolio's investments may rise and fall sharply in the short-term and this may result in a higher volatility of the Portfolio's value.

Political and Financial

The Portfolio invests in markets where economic and regulatory risk can be significant. These factors can affect liquidity, settlement and asset values. Any such event can have a negative effect on the value of your investment.

Geographical Concentration

The Portfolio's investments are concentrated in emerging markets. This may result in higher volatility than funds which comprise broad-based global investments.

Below Investment Grade Debt Securities

The Portfolio may invest in high yield/below investment grade debt securities. This will mean the Portfolio is more likely to be exposed to higher volatility and liquidity risks.

Downgrading of debt securities

Subsequent downgrade of the debt securities held by the Portfolio may adversely affect the value of such securities and may expose the Portfolio to higher credit and counterparty risks.

Currency

Where investments are made in assets that are denominated in multiple currencies, changes in exchange rates may affect the value of the investments.

Investor Currency

Where investments in the Portfolio are in currencies other than your own, changes in exchange rates may affect the value of your investments.

Issuer

The Portfolio invests in securities whose value would be significantly affected if the issuer either refused to pay or was unable to pay.

Liquidity

The Portfolio invests in assets that are not always readily saleable without suffering a discount to fair value. The Portfolio may have to significantly lower the selling price, sell other investments or forego another, more appealing investment opportunity.

Interest Rates

Changes in interest rates are likely to affect the Portfolio's value. In general, as interest rates rise, the price of a fixed rate bond will fall, and vice versa.

Inflation

Most bond funds offer limited capital growth potential and an income that is not linked to inflation. Therefore, inflation can affect the value of capital and income over time.

Hedge/Basis

The use of financial derivative instruments for hedging and/or efficient portfolio management purposes may become ineffective in adverse situations or if the Management Company or the Sub-Advisor employs a strategy that does not correlate well with the Portfolio's investments. This may result in a significant loss to the Portfolio.

Distribution out of capital risk

Distributions may be paid out of the capital of the Share Classes AEC, ASC and AUP if the net distributable income attributable to these share classes during the relevant period is insufficient to pay distributions as declared. The Directors of the Portfolio may also, at their discretion, pay dividends out of gross income while paying all or part of the share classes' expenses out of their capital, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends, and therefore paying dividends effectively out of capital of the relevant share classes. Investors should note that the payment of distributions out of, or effectively out of, capital represents a return or a withdrawal of part of the amount they originally invested or capital gain attributable to that amount. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of, or effectively out of, capital of the share classes will result in an immediate decrease in the net asset value of the relevant shares.
