About the fund

The investment objective of the Global Property Equities Fund is to seek long term capital appreciation by investing in the quoted equity securities of companies or Real Estate Investment Trusts (or equivalents) listed or traded on a regulated market which derive the main part of their revenue from the ownership, management and/or development of real estate, throughout the world.

Guy joined Henderson Global Investors in 2006 as an analyst with the Property Equities team. He subsequently became a Fund Manager in 2008, deputy head of Global Property Equities in 2012 and Co-head of Global Property Equities in 2014. He began his career within the Financial Control function at UBS where he spent a period of three years. Guy holds a First Class BSc (Hons) degree in Mathematics and Management from Loughborough University and is a CFA charterholder.

Tim Gibson joined Henderson in 2011 as Co-Head of Global Property Equities. Before joining Henderson, Tim was a European fund manager at AMP Capital Brookfield, responsible for portfolio construction and execution of an indirect real estate fund. Prior to this, Tim worked as an analyst for Morgan Stanley in their European Real Estate Investment Team, in London and Amsterdam, providing investment recommendations on property companies in the UK and Europe. Tim holds an MA (Hons) in Economics from St Andrews University, Scotland and received the Robert Trent Jones Scholarship to the University of Western Ontario, Canada.

Please note that as of 1 July 2014, Tim Gibson took over co-management of this fund from Patrick Sumner.

General risks

- The value of the funds and the income from them is not guaranteed and may fall as well as rise. You may get back less than you originally invested.
- Past performance is not a guide to future performance.

What are the risks specific to this fund?

- There is no guarantee that investors will get back the invested amount given that the value of investments is subject to market conditions and therefore may go down as well as up.
- The performance of the value of the Company and its funds is primarily a comparison of the net asset values per Share at the beginning and the end of a particular period of time. Hence, an investor in order to assess the actual performance of his investment in the Company must deduct from the performance declared at a certain time any subscription fee paid by him when making his investment in the Company.
- The value of an investment in the Company will be affected by fluctuations in the value of the currency of denomination of the relevant fund's Shares against the value of the currency of denomination of that Fund's underlying investments. Adverse fluctuations in currency exchange rates can result in a decrease in return and in a loss of capital.
- The Horizon Global Property Equities Fund may use techniques and instruments for hedging purposes only to protect portfolios against currency fluctuation, market movements and interest rates risks. The use of any of these derivative instruments will not reach a volume which could endanger the spirit of the investment policy.
- On the Horizon Global Property Equities Fund, Class A, Class I and Class S shares may be made available in Euro, Sterling, US Dollar, Singapore Dollars, Swiss Franc and Swedish Krona hedged versions or such other currencies as the Directors of the Company may determine from time to time (if these currencies are not the base currencies of the Fund concerned). The Investment Manager will hedge the Shares of such Classes in relation to the Base Currency of the Horizon Global Property Equities Fund. Where such hedging is undertaken, the Investment Manager may use financial swaps, futures, forward currency exchange contracts, options and other derivative transactions in order to preserve the value of the hedged Share Class currency against the Base Currency of the Horizon Global Property Equities Fund. Where undertaken, the effects of the hedging will be reflected in the Net Asset Value of the hedged Share Class. Any expenses arising from such hedging transactions will be borne by the Share Class in relation to which they have been incurred and will thereby impact on the performance of that Share Class. Where such hedging is undertaken it may substantially protect investors against a decrease in the value of the Base Currency of the Horizon Global Property Equities Fund.
- There are special risks associated with investment in securities of companies engaged in property markets. These include the cyclical nature of property values, increases in property taxes, changes in zoning laws, regulatory limits on rents, environmental risks, depreciation in the value of buildings over time, and increases in interest rates.
- Investors should note that in certain market conditions, securities held by the Horizon Global Property Equities Fund may not be as liquid as they would be in normal circumstances. If a security cannot be sold in a timely manner then it may be harder to attain a reasonable price and there is a risk that the price at which the security is valued may not be realisable in the event of sale. The Horizon Global Property Equities Fund may therefore be unable to readily sell such securities.
- This fund is designed to be used only as one component in several in a diversified investment portfolio. Investors should consider carefully the proportion of their portfolio invested into this fund.
