

BEA Union Investment China Phoenix Fund

As at 28 February 2020

- The investments of BEA Union Investment China Phoenix Fund ("the Fund") are concentrated in China and may be subject to high concentration risk and more volatility than that of funds having a more diverse portfolio of investment. The value of the Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the China market.
- The Fund is subject to equity markets risk such as changes in investment sentiment, economic conditions and issuer-specific factors which may adversely affect the Fund's value.
- The Fund invests in emerging markets and may be subject to higher liquidity and volatility risks.
- The Fund may invest in China A shares via Stock Connects. Change in the relevant rules and regulations may have potential retrospective effect. Stock Connects is subject to quota limitations. When suspension in trading through the Stock Connects is effected, the Fund's ability to invest in China A shares may be adversely affected.
- The Fund is subject to China tax risk and any increased tax liabilities on the Fund may adversely affect the Fund's value.
- In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that the currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.
- RMB is currently not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of the RMB could adversely affect the value of investors' investments.
- The Fund may acquire financial derivative instruments for hedging and investment purposes. Given the leverage effect embedded in financial derivative instruments, the Fund may be exposed to significant losses.
- Investors should not make an investment decision based solely on this material.
