THIS NOTIFICATION IS IMPORTANT AND REQUIRES IMMEDIATE ATTENTION. IF IN DOUBT, PLEASE SEEK PROFESSIONAL ADVICE. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ACCEPT RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS NOTIFICATION AS BEING ACCURATE AS AT THE DATE OF PUBLICATION.

Luxembourg, 31 December 2019

Dear Shareholder,

We are writing to inform you of the following changes made to the Hong Kong offering document of the Company (comprising of the Prospectus and the Product Key Facts Statements (“KFS”)). Unless otherwise defined herein, terms and expressions used in this notice have the same meanings as given to them in the Hong Kong offering document of the Company.

1. Amendments to reflect requirements under the revised Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds

The Company and certain of its sub-funds (each a “Sub-Fund”, and collectively the “Sub-Funds”) are authorised by the Securities and Futures Commission in Hong Kong (“SFC”) and hence are subject to the applicable requirements under the Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds (“UT Code”) issued by the SFC. The UT Code has been revised.

The following key changes (“UT Code Changes”) are made to the offering document to reflect applicable requirements under the revised Code:

- Enhancement of disclosures on net derivative exposure – the Prospectus and the KFS of the Sub-Funds have been amended to include disclosures on the expected maximum net derivative exposure arising from derivative investments. The net derivative exposure of each Sub-Fund is calculated in accordance with the requirements and guidance issued by the SFC, which may be updated from time to time.

Note that except for the Sub-Funds listed below, the net derivative exposure of each of the Sub-Funds authorised for sale in Hong Kong may be up to 50% of the relevant Sub-Fund’s Net Asset Value:

- (a) Amundi Funds – Global Bond – the Sub-Fund’s net derivative exposure may be more than 100% of the Sub-Fund’s Net Asset Value; and
- (b) Amundi Funds – Emerging Markets Local Currency Bond – the Sub-Fund’s net derivative exposure may be more than 100% of the Sub-Fund’s Net Asset Value.

Consequential amendments are made to:

- (a) the Management Processes of the Amundi Funds – Global Bond and Amundi Funds – Emerging Markets Local Currency by removing the risk management methods and levels of the expected maximum leverage for the purpose of aligning with the enhanced disclosure; and
- (b) Appendix III of the Prospectus titled “Measurement and Management of Risk” by replacing references to levels of the expected maximum leverage with net derivative exposures and removing information of the Sub-Funds whose net derivative exposures are up to 50% of their respective Net Asset Values.

Please refer to the updated Prospectus for more details.

- Clarification on the exposure on instruments with loss-absorption features (“LAP”) – the investment policies of certain Sub-Funds have been clarified regarding their maximum exposures to LAP.

Please refer to Annex I annexed to this Notice for information on the maximum exposures to LAP in respect of the relevant Sub-Funds.

A consequential amendment is made to the sub-section titled “General investment risk” in the Prospectus to insert a new risk factor “Risks associated with investments in LAP” and integrating the existing risk factor “Contingent Convertible Bonds (Cocos) risk” into the same.

- Other amendments – other amendments and enhancement of disclosures to reflect the requirements of the revised UT Code including the following:
 - (a) amendments to reflect the requirements under the revised UT Code on transactions with connected persons and soft commissions arrangements;
 - (b) enhanced disclosures on the material risks associated with the custody arrangements in respect of the assets of the Fund and the Sub-Funds;
 - (c) enhanced disclosures on the valuation rules of the Fund, including but not limited to the relevant procedures to be undertaken for fair value adjustments and the arrangements on third party valuation; and
 - (d) enhanced disclosures on arrangements in handling unclaimed proceeds of Shareholders where a Sub-Fund is liquidated.

Please refer to the revised Hong Kong offering document for further details of the UT Code Changes.

2. Transition of Amundi Funds – Cash EUR (This is not a money market fund in Hong Kong)* and Amundi Funds – Cash USD (This is not a money market fund in Hong Kong)* (collectively the “MMF Sub-Funds”) under the revised UT Code

* This is a standard variable net asset value money market fund under the Regulation (EU) 2017/1131 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on money market funds (the “MMFR”).

As a result of the revised Code, only funds classified as short-term money market funds under the MMFR will continue to be classified as money market funds under the revised Code. As the MMF Sub-Funds are standard variable net asset value money market funds under the MMFR and the MMF Sub-Funds are unable to fully comply with the requirements under the revised Chapter 8.2 of the Code, they will no longer be classified as money market funds under the revised Code. In particular, the MMF Sub-Funds currently maintain a portfolio with weighted average maturity not exceeding 90 days and weighted average life not exceeding 12 months under the MMFR. Consequently, the MMF Sub-Funds will not be able to comply with 8.2(f) of the revised Code which requires the portfolio to maintain a weighted average maturity not exceeding 60 days and weighted average life not exceeding 120 days.

With effect from 31 December 2019, the Explanatory Memorandum will be amended to indicate that the MMF Sub-Funds are not money market funds under the revised Code even though they are standard variable net asset value money market funds under the MMFR. A new risk disclosure to the effect that the MMF Sub-Funds may be subject to higher risks (e.g. credit risk and interest rate risk) than money market funds authorised under Chapter 8.2 of the revised UT Code has been added to the Prospectus and the KFS of the MMF Sub-Funds.

Notwithstanding the reclassification, for the avoidance of doubt, there is no material change to the key features of the MMF Sub-Funds (including their investment objectives, policies, overall risk profiles, levels of fees and the way they are being managed).

3. Amendment to the investment policy of Amundi Funds – China Equity

With effect from 31 January 2020, the investment policy of Amundi Funds – China Equity will be amended as follows:

“Investments

The sub-fund invests mainly (i.e. at least 50% of net asset value) in equities of companies based in, or that do most of their business in, the People’s Republic of China, and that are listed on stock markets there or in Hong Kong. The sub-fund is not subject to any limitation on the portion of its net asset value that may be invested in any one sector or any companies with a particular market capitalisation.

The sub-fund may invest up to 10% of its assets in other UCIs and UCITS.

The sub-fund may invest up to 100% of its net asset in China B Shares. Also, the sub-fund may from time to time invest and have direct access to China A Shares via Stock Connect and/or the quota granted to a Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor with an exposure of up to ~~10%~~20% of its net assets.

The sub-fund does not intend to invest more than 10% of the sub-fund's net asset value in securities issued and/or guaranteed by a single sovereign issuer (including its government, a public or local authority of that country) which is below Investment Grade or unrated.”

In spite of the amendment above, for the avoidance of doubt, there is no material change to the key features of Amundi Funds – China Equity (including the investment objective, policy, overall risk profile, level of fees and the way it is being managed).

4. Update to the Personal Information Collection Statement

The Personal Information Collection Statement in the Prospectus has been updated to notify the Shareholders that in addition to Amundi Hong Kong Limited, CACEIS Hong Kong Trust Company Limited will also receive access to and process personal data of the Shareholders.

Please refer to the revised Prospectus for further details.

5. Miscellaneous updates

The following changes have also been made to the Prospectus:

- (a) Update to the list of the directors of the Fund, the list of directors and the list of conducting officers of the Management Company;
- (b) Update to the risk factors “Contingent Convertible Bonds (Cocos) risk”, “Benchmark and Sub-Fund performance risk” and “Risk related to distribution out of capital” and insertion of a new risk factor “Money market fund risk” in the sub-section titled “General investment risk” in the Prospectus;
- (c) Update to the sub-section titled “Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information” in the Prospectus; and
- (d) Other consequential amendments and miscellaneous updates, drafting and editorial amendments.

Please refer to the revised Prospectus for further details.

What is this product?

This fund is a sub-fund of Amundi Funds, a mutual fund domiciled in Luxembourg and its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier.

Objectives and Investment Strategy

To achieve long-term capital growth. Specifically, the fund seeks to outperform (after applicable fees) the S&P Pan Arab Large Mid Cap index.

The fund invests at least 67% of its assets in equities and Equity-Linked Instruments of companies that are headquartered, or do substantial business, in MENA (i.e. The Middle East and North Africa region) countries. The fund may invest in participatory notes for the purpose of efficient portfolio management. There are no currency constraints on these investments.

Use of derivatives / investment in derivatives

This fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the fund's net asset value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Prospectus for details including the risk factors.

1. Developing countries risk: According to the objectives and investment strategy of the fund, it will invest in developing countries which may subject to developing countries risk. Investment in securities of issuers of developing countries involves special considerations and risks, including the risks associated with investment in developing countries, such as currency fluctuations, the risks of investing in countries with smaller capital markets, limited liquidity, higher price volatility, different conditions applying to transaction and control and restrictions on foreign investment, as well as risks associated with developing countries economies, including high inflation and interest rates, large amounts of external debt as well as political and social uncertainties.

2. Additional risks due to the political and economic situation in MENA region: As the fund will invest in MENA region, instability in the MENA markets may result from factors such as government or military intervention in decision-making, terrorism, civil unrest, extremism or hostilities between neighbouring countries. An outbreak of hostilities could result in substantial losses for the fund. Extremist groups in certain countries have traditionally held anti-Western views and are opposed to openness to foreign investments. If these movements gain strength they could have a destabilising effect on the investment activities of the fund.

In MENA region, markets may remain closed for several days due to religious celebration, during which no subscription and redemption will be processed. Moreover, exact dates of market closure may be known only a very short time in advance.

The underlying investments of the fund will consist of quoted shares in the MENA region. The marketability of quoted shares is limited due to the restricted opening hours of stock exchanges, a narrow range of investors and a relatively high proportion of market shares being held by a relatively small number of shareholders. Trading volume is generally lower than on more developed stock markets and equities are generally less liquid.

3. Equity risk: Investment in common stocks and other equity securities are subject to market risk that historically has resulted in greater price volatility than experienced by bonds and other fixed income securities.

4. Risk specific for participatory notes: participatory notes which are the embedded derivatives instruments allowing investors to indirectly invest in securities listed on certain markets having a complicated or restricted access in MENA region, may be subject to counterparty risk which is the risk that the broker, dealer or bank that issues the notes will not fulfill its contractual obligations under the notes.

5. Risk attached to the use of Financial Derivative Instruments ("FDI"): The fund may invest in FDI for hedging purpose and for the purpose of efficient portfolio management only. Investment in FDI is subject to additional risks, including credit risk of the issuer, liquidity risk, counterparty risk and valuation risk. In adverse situation, the fund's use of FDI may become ineffective in hedging/efficient portfolio management and the fund may suffer significant losses.

6. Market risk: Value of this fund investments could decrease due to movements in financial markets. The value of the fund can be extremely volatile and could go down substantially within a short period of time. It is possible that your investment value could suffer substantial loss.

7. Risks related to distribution out of capital: For distribution class, Amundi Funds may at its discretion determine to pay dividends out of income or capital of the fund. In addition, Amundi Funds may at its discretion pay dividends out of gross income while charging / paying all or part of the fund's fees and expenses to the capital of the fund, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the fund, in which case, the fund is effectively paying dividends out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions involving payment of dividends out of the fund's capital or payment of dividends effectively out of the fund's capital (as the case may be) may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per share of the fund. Amundi Funds may change the fund's dividend distribution policy to pay dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital of the fund subject to the SFC's prior approval. For change of distribution policy, not less than one month's prior notice will be provided to affected Shareholders.
