SciBeta HFE Japan Equity 6F EW UCITS ETF Share Class EUR (ISIN: IE00BDBRDY56)

SciBeta HFE Japan Equity 6F EW UCITS ETF (the "Fund") is managed by MSIM Fund Management (Ireland) Limited, part of the Morgan Stanley group.

OBJECTIVES AND INVESTMENT POLICY

The Fund's investment objective is to seek medium to long term growth by tracking an index of Japanese company shares. The Fund is passively managed and:

- 1) will track the performance of the following index (minus fees): Scientific Beta Japan HFI Multi-Beta Multi-Strategy Six Factor EW Market Beta Adjusted (Leverage) (Six-Factor) Index Net Return, denominated in EUR (the "Index");
- 2) is an Exchange Traded Fund ("ETF"), meaning it can be bought and sold on a stock exchange

The Fund's investment strategy:

The Index is designed to give investors diversified exposure to shares, or share-like instruments, that are listed or traded on any stock exchange located in Japan. Rather than allocating to companies based on their market value, the Index allocates to six sub-indices, each representing a particular investment style, namely:

- (i) Value – selecting companies whose accounting value (book value) is high relative to the market value of its shares
- (ii) Size (Medium Capitalisation) – selecting companies that have a total market value within a particular range
- (iii) Low Volatility – selecting companies whose share price is likely to fluctuate by less than their peers
- (iv) Momentum – selecting companies whose share price has performed well relative to its peers
- (v) Low Investment – selecting companies whose assets have grown more slowly relative to their peers
- (vi) High Profitability – selecting companies with a high level of profitability compared to their assets

Each of these investment styles is given an equal allocation in the Index. For more information on the Index please go to:
