30 September 2024

Morningstar Rating™* ****

Important Information

- The Fund investors hould note the currency exchange risk, equities risk, volatility risk, and general investment risk. Financial derivative instruments (FDI) may be used for efficient portfolio management purposes or to hedge or reduce the overall risk of investments. Risks associated with FDI include counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element/component of a FDI can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the FDI by the Fund. For certain share class(es), the Fund may at discretion pay dividend out of the capital and/or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per share in respect of such share class after the monthly distribution-1 share class that are currency hedged (MD-1 hedged) should be aware of the uncertainty of relative interest rates. The net asset value of the MD-1 hedged may fluctuate and may significantly differ from other share class due to fluctuation of the interest rate differential between the currency in which the MD-1 hedged is denominated and the base currency of the Fund and may result in a greater resois on C capital than other non-hedged share class. (Note 2) The value of the Fund can be volatile and could go down substantially. Investors should not base their investment decision on this material alone.

Objectives and investment strategy

The Fund aims to generate a rising level of income, together with long-term capital growth, investing primarily (at least 70% of the net asset value of the Fund) in global equities. In pursuing this objective, the Investment Manager may include investments that they consider appropriate, which include transferable securities, money market instruments, warrants, undertakings for collective investment, deposits and other available in the security of the s permitted investments.

*At Invesco we continuously monitor any applicable sanctions, including those imposed by the UN/US/EU and UK. These sanctions may preclude investments in the securities of various governments/regimes/entities and as such will be included in our compliance guidelines and workflows (designed to ensure compliance with such sanctions). The wording of international sanctions is something that we pay particular attention to as there are occasions where sanctions can exist in limited form, for example allowing investments in the secondary market. In addition to sanctions targeting entire countries, there are other thematic regimes, which may apply to both individuals and/or entities/corporations.

Any investment decision should take into account all the characteristics of the fund as described in the legal documents. For sustainability related aspects, please refer to: https://www.invescomanagementcompany.lu/luxmanco/literature.
